NAVARTRA SABHAGAR: RAJ'S THREAT TO PAKISTAN AND KUSHWANT SINGH'S \textit{Three Indian Novels: ARAKH KAAM'S Commitment Toward a Political Commitment in the Indian Ideal of Social Justice} Rio.
The time of the Indian rebellion is not a time to advertise the country, it is a time to forget the country and the passions it has. The time of the Indian rebellion is a time to forget the country and the passions it has, and to remember the country and the passion it has.

(69) The good Indian's English is as good as the English of the Indian. He is not a man of the country, he is a man of the country. He is not a man of the country, he is a man of the country.

(70) The good Indian's English is as good as the English of the Indian. He is not a man of the country, he is a man of the country. He is not a man of the country, he is a man of the country.

The weight of a man's or woman's thoughts and actions sustains his or her life; his or her life is founded on the balance of these thoughts and actions. The balance is the pivot of his or her existence, and it is the axis about which his or her life revolves. The balance is the measure of his or her progress, and it is the index of his or her success.

Success is the result of two forces: his or her thoughts and his or her actions. The balance is the measure of his or her progress, and it is the index of his or her success.

The proposal of more or less on what faculty, of course, the express provision for a responsible position in the field is seen. The inclusion of such a clause in the charter of the college is closer to the idea of a faculty, as it involves the creation of a Senate, which is responsible for the administration of the college. This is because the faculty is an important part of the college's governance, and its inclusion in the charter helps to ensure that the college's academic and administrative decisions are made in the best interests of the students and the institution.

The idea of a Senate is not new. In the early days of higher education, a Senate was often included in the charter of a college to provide a body that would act as a check on the power of the president. This is a role that the Faculty Senate plays today, with its role in governance and decision-making.

The inclusion of a Senate in the charter of the college also helps to ensure that the college's policies and procedures are consistent with the wishes of the students and the faculty. This is because the Senate is elected by the students and the faculty, and it is their responsibility to ensure that the college's policies and procedures are in the best interests of the students and the faculty. This is an important part of the college's governance, and it helps to ensure that the college is run in the best interests of the students and the faculty.
