No. 836.

An Act for the amendment of an Act relating to the Consolidation of the Public Debt, and for other purposes.

[Assented to, October 30th, 1903.]

Be it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as “The Consolidated Stock and Sinking Fund Amendment Act, 1903,” and shall be incorporated and read with “The Consolidated Stock and Sinking Fund Act, 1896” (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), and any Act amending the same.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10 of the principal Act, consolidated stock issued and sold after the first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and three, shall be repayable at par, together with all moneys accrued due thereunder, on the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three: Provided that the Treasurer shall have the option of redeeming the whole or any part of such consolidated stock at par on or after the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, on giving twelve calendar months’ notice of his intention so to do in the London Gazette and the London Times newspaper in respect of stock on the London register and in the South Australian Government Gazette in respect of stock on the Adelaide register, and in two daily newspapers issued in Adelaide, and by post to the then holders of such stock at their registered addresses.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

GEORGE R. Le HUNTE, Governor.
