No. 773.

An Act to further amend "The Licensed Victuallers Act, 1880."

[Assented to, December 21st, 1901.]

Be it Enacted by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Parliament of South Australia, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Licensed Victuallers Further Amendment Act, 1901," and shall be read and construed with "The Licensed Victuallers Act, 1880," and with all other Acts incorporated therewith.

2. In addition to licences provided to be granted there shall be one to be denominated a brewer's colonial ale licence, which shall be granted only to brewers of ale, stout, and other fermented liquors, and shall be in the form of the Schedule X to this Act.

3. The application for the granting of such licence shall be in the form of the Schedule Y to this Act.

4. Every such licence shall authorise the brewer therein licensed to sell and dispose of liquor on the premises therein specified, in quantities of not less at one time than two gallons of one kind of spirits or one dozen reputed quart bottles or two dozen reputed pint bottles of wine or other fermented liquor to be taken away at one time by one person, and not to be drunk on the premises in which such liquor is sold. Penalty of not less than Ten Pounds or more than Fifty Pounds.

5. No
5. No person while holding a brewer's colonial ale licence shall be capable of holding a storekeeper's licence or a wine licence. Any grant of either of such last-mentioned licences to a person holding a brewer's colonial ale licence shall be void and of none effect.

6. All the provisions of the Acts read and incorporated herewith referring to or dealing with storekeepers' licences shall, except where inconsistent herewith or inapplicable hereto, apply to a brewer's colonial ale licence in the same manner as if a provision had been made in such sections for such licences, in addition to storekeepers' licences.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

TENNYSON, Governor.
