No. 5 of 1941.

An Act to amend the Hawkers Act, 1934.

[Assented to 4th September, 1941.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Hawkers Act Amendment Act, 1941".

(2) The Hawkers Act, 1934, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the "Hawkers Act, 1934-1941".

(3) The Hawkers Act, 1934, is hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act".

2. The following sections are enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 9 thereof:

9a. Upon the application of the holder of any licence and on payment of a fee of one shilling the Commissioner may revoke any licence held by the applicant and—

(a) issue to him in lieu thereof any licence of any other class mentioned in the second schedule if the fee payable for such a licence is the same or less than the fee paid in respect of the licence so revoked:

(b) issue to him in lieu thereof any licence of any class mentioned in the second schedule the fee payable for which is more than the fee paid in respect of the licence so revoked but in such a case the licence shall not be issued as aforesaid unless an amount equal to the difference between the fee paid for the licence so revoked and the fee prescribed by the second schedule in respect of the licence so issued is also paid to the Commissioner: Provided that if the licence so issued is issued after the twenty-fourth day of September and before the twenty-fifth day of March following, the amount to be paid as aforesaid shall be one half of the said difference.

9b. If application is made by the holder of a hawker’s licence and the Commissioner is satisfied that an employee’s licence has been issued to an employee of the applicant, and that the fee for that licence was paid by the applicant, the Commissioner may, on payment of a fee of two shillings and sixpence, transfer the employee’s licence to any other person, being an employee of the applicant, who the Commissioner is satisfied is a fit and proper person to hold a licence.

3. Section 11 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end of subsection (1) thereof the words “or upon a plate securely affixed to such vehicle, boat, aeroplane or pack”.

4. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 16 thereof:—

16a. (1) Every person who is the holder of a licence shall within fourteen days after changing his permanent place of residence give to the Commissioner of Police notice in writing of his permanent place of residence.

(2) Any person who fails to give any notice as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty of not more than five shillings.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

C. M. BARCLAY-HARVEY, Governor.
