No. 12 of 1942.

An Act to empower certain statutory bodies to refund or remit registration fees and for purposes incidental thereto.

[Assented to 29th October, 1942.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Remission of Registration Fees Act, 1942".

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires or some other meaning is clearly intended—

"fee" includes—

(a) fee, subscription, or other like sum of money paid or payable pursuant to any Act to a registration board and any interest, fine, costs or other sum paid or payable by reason of the late payment or non-payment of any such fee, subscription, or other like sum;

(b) any part of any such fee, subscription, interest, fine, costs or other sum:

"member of a fighting force" means member of a naval, military, or air force of the Commonwealth or any other part of the King’s Dominions:

"penalty" includes de-registration or suspension of registration imposed or imposable for non-payment or late payment of a fee:
32 1942. Remission of Registration Fees Act, No. 12.

"registration board" means board, authority, or person which or who pursuant to any Act, has the duty of registering or licensing or controlling the registering or licensing of members of a profession or calling:

"war" means any war in which the Commonwealth is engaged.

3. Notwithstanding any enactment to the contrary a registration board may, if it considers that circumstances connected with a war justify it in doing so—

(a) remit any fee payable or becoming payable to the board by a member of a fighting force, or any penalty imposed or imposable upon a member of a fighting force;

(b) refund any fee paid by a member of a fighting force.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

C. M. BARCLAY-HARVEY, Governor.
