No. 47 of 1955

An Act to provide for the construction of a railway from Woodlands Park to Tonsley.

[Assented to 8th December, 1955.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Woodlands Park to Tonsley Railway Act, 1955".

2. The Compulsory Acquisition of Land Act, 1925, is incorporated with this Act.

3. (1) The South Australian Railways Commissioner (hereinafter called "the Commissioner") may—

(a) construct a railway from a point near the Woodlands Park railway station on the Adelaide-Marino railway to a point near a proposed railway station to be situated in section 79, Hundred of Adelaide and to be known as Tonsley, which points are indicated on the plan prepared by the Chief Engineer of Railways numbered 53 and dated the seventeenth day of November, 1955;

(b) construct all proper works, buildings and structures connected with or required for the purposes of the said railway.
Woodlands Park to Tonsley Railway No. 47. Act, 1955.

(2) The said railway shall be constructed on the route indicated in the said plan, or on some variation of that route within the limits of deviation indicated on the said plan.

(3) The gauge of the said railway shall be five feet three inches.

(4) The Commissioner, if he thinks proper, may enter into contracts with any persons for all or any of the following purposes namely, the construction of the whole or any part of the said railway, works, buildings and structures, and the execution of any works and the provision of any materials, equipment and services required in connection with such construction.

4. (1) The money required for the purposes of constructing the railway, works, buildings and structures mentioned in this Act shall be paid out of money standing to the credit of the loan fund account in the Treasury.

(2) This Act without further appropriation shall be sufficient authority for the Treasurer to make any such payments.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

R. A. GEORGE, Governor.
