No. 27 of 1956.

An Act to amend the Forestry Act, 1950.

[Assented to 15th November, 1956.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Forestry Act Amendment Act, 1956".

(2) The Forestry Act, 1950, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the "Forestry Act, 1950-1956".

(3) The Forestry Act, 1950, is hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act".

2. Section 6 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out the words "three members" in the third line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such number of members being not less than three nor more than five as is from time to time determined by the Governor";

(b) by striking out the word "two" in the fifth line thereof;
(c) by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:

(6) Such number of members as the Minister from time to time determines shall be a quorum of the board.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

R. A. GEORGE, Governor.
