ANNO SEXTO

ELIZABETHAE II REGINAE

A.D. 1957.

************************************************

No. 39 of 1957.

[Assented to 14th November, 1957.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the “Police Offences Act Amendment Act, 1957”.

   (2) The Police Offences Act, 1953-1956, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the “Police Offences Act, 1953-1957”.

   (3) The Police Offences Act, 1953-1956, is hereinafter called “the principal Act”.

2. This Act is incorporated with the principal Act and that Act and this Act shall be read as one Act.

3. Section 17 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end of subsection (2) thereof the following paragraph:

   (f) any area of land (whether enclosed or fenced or not) forming the yard, garden, or curtilage of any building.

4. Section 59 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the words “inspector of police” in the second line of subsection (5) and inserting in lieu thereof the words “member of the police force holding a rank not lower than that of inspector”.
5. Section 78 of the principal Act is amended by inserting at the end of subsection (1) the following proviso:

Provided that where a person has been so apprehended at a place not more than fifteen miles in a direct line from the General Post Office at Adelaide upon suspicion of having committed an offence against section 48 or section 121a of the Road Traffic Act, 1934-1956, he may be delivered as aforesaid into the custody of the member of police force who is in charge of either—

(a) the police station at Adelaide, known as the City Watch House; or

(b) the police station nearest to the place where the person was apprehended.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

R. A. GEORGE, Governor.
