17. Section 60 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section enacted in lieu thereof:—

60. (1) A land agent shall pay all moneys received by him in his capacity as a land agent into a trust account not later than the next day on which his bank is open for business after the day on which the total of all moneys received and held by him in such capacity amounts to ten pounds.

(2) Any moneys collected or received by a land agent as agent for any person and being rent, interest, principal, deposit, instalments, or other moneys whatever payable under any lease, mortgage, or contract for the sale of land, shall be deemed to be money received by the land agent in his capacity as a land agent.

(3) Moneys received by a land agent other than in his capacity as a land agent shall not be paid into the trust account.
(4) A land agent shall not withdraw moneys paid by him into a trust account except for the purpose of completing the transaction in the course of which the moneys were received, and when withdrawn such moneys shall be applied by the land agent in payment of—

(a) the expenses, commission and other charges of or incidental to the particular transaction; and

(b) the balance (if any) payable to the person or persons lawfully entitled thereto.

(5) Every land agent shall—

(a) keep full and accurate separate trust accounts of all moneys received or held by him in his capacity as a land agent for or on behalf of any person and of all payments made by him of such moneys; and

(b) keep those accounts at all times properly written up; and

(c) keep the accounts in such manner that they can be conveniently and properly audited at any time.

(6) Moneys paid into a trust account pursuant to this section other than any commission or expenses to which the land agent may be entitled shall not be available for payment of the debts of the land agent, or be liable to be attached or taken in execution under the order or process of any court.

(7) In this section payment into a trust account means payment into a bank carrying on business in the State to the credit of a trust account kept in the name of the land agent concerned.

(8) Every person who commits a breach of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

26. Section 81 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section enacted in lieu thereof:

81. (1) Where the board has power under this Act to make an order cancelling a licence or registration or disqualifying any person from holding a licence or being registered the board may, in lieu of making such an order make an order reprimanding the land agent, land salesman or manager concerned.

(2) If within a period of five years any licensed or registered person under this Act receives three reprimands from the board his licence or registration shall be cancelled.

Repeal and re-enactment of s. 82 of the principal Act.
Costs.

27. Section 82 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section enacted in lieu thereof:

82. On the hearing of an application for renewal of a licence or registration or an application for the cancellation of a licence or registration or on the determination of an inquiry under section 78a, the board may in addition to its other powers make such order as to costs as the board thinks just and reasonable.

Enactment of section 88a of principal Act—
Power of court to cancel licence or registration.

28. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 88:

88a. When—

(a) any licensed land agent or director or manager of a company carrying on business as a licensed land agent; or

(b) any registered land salesman; or

(c) any registered manager,

has been convicted before any court of an offence against this Act or any offence involving dishonesty, such court may of its own motion, and without further notice to any person, make an order for cancellation of the licence or registration.
29. Section 92 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the words "at his last known place of abode."

30. Section 16 of the principal Act is repealed.

31. This Act shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

R. A. GEORGE, Governor.
