To Regulate, for a limited time, the Exportation of Gunpowder and Warlike Stores from the Province of South Australia.

[23rd July, 1846.]

WHEREAS circumstances have arisen to render it expedient to regulate the Exportation of Gunpowder and Warlike Stores from the Province of South Australia:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Governor of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that during the continuance of this Ordinance, no vessel having Gunpowder or Warlike Stores on board, in greater quantity than may, in the opinion of the Collector or Chief Officer of Customs at the port of clearance, be required for the ordinary use and service of such vessel, shall be cleared at any port in the said Province, without without a license under the hand of the Governor, or of the Colonial Secretary.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, that before any Gunpowder or other Warlike Stores shall be shipped under any such license as aforesaid, the shipper thereof shall be required to give security by bond, for five hundred pounds, or treble the amount of the value of the Gunpowder or Warlike Stores so shipped, if it shall exceed that amount, with two sufficient sureties, being resident householders, to the satisfaction of the Collector or Chief Officer of Customs at the port of clearance, that such Gunpowder or Warlike Stores, as the case may be, shall be landed at the place for which it is declared to be shipped, the proof of which shall lie upon the shipper thereof, by the production of the certificate of the Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at the place where landed, or such other proof as shall satisfy the Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at the place of shipment, within a reasonable time, to be mentioned in such bond; and in failure thereof, the shipper shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred pounds, to be recovered at the suit of such Collector or Chief Officer of Customs, or of Her Majesty's Advocate General, in the Supreme Court of South Australia; and that in default of payment of such penalty by the said shipper, it shall be lawful for the said Collector or Chief Officer, or Advocate General, to put the said bond in suit in the said Court, and to recover such amount or value, as the case may be, by information or otherwise.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, that all sums recovered in virtue of this Ordinance, shall be paid to the Colonial Treasurer, on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors, for the public uses of the Province, and support of the Government thereof.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, that this Ordinance shall come into effect from the passing thereof, and continue in force for two years thereafter.
