ORDINANCE enacted by the Governor of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

To Repeal an Ordinance intituled "An Act to constitute a Municipal Corporation for the City of Adelaide," and to provide for the liquidation of certain Debts incurred by the late Corporation.

[1st September, 1846.]

WHEREAS the Corporation named "The Mayor and Corporation of the City of Adelaide," has ceased to exercise corporate functions, and it is expedient to liquidate certain debts incurred by the said Corporation, out of the public revenues of the Province.

Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that from and after the passing hereof, an Ordinance passed on the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty, intituled "An Act to constitute a Municipal Corporation for the City of Adelaide;" and an Ordinance passed on the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, intituled "An Act to amend 'An Act to constitute a Municipal Corporation for the City of Adelaide," be and the same are hereby repealed: And the Corporate rights, and all powers thereby created, shall cease and determine.
II. And be it enacted, that all property, real and personal, of whatever nature, heretofore acquired by and belonging to the Mayor and Corporation of the City of Adelaide, shall vest in Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by force of this Ordinance.

III. And be it enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor to liquidate out of the public general revenues of the Province, not otherwise specially appropriated, all the just debts and claims which, after due examination and audit, have been made clearly to appear to have been fairly incurred and due by the said Corporation, and to be properly payable under the authority of this Ordinance, amounting in the whole to the sum of One thousand and ninety-eight pounds, nine shillings and four pence, according to the report of the Auditor General thereon.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, that nothing herein contained shall be taken to relieve from responsibility the said Corporation, or any parties who may have become liable for or in respect of any debts or engagements remaining to be liquidated, or not fully satisfied under this Ordinance. And that all liabilities, real or personal, by which any property or any persons may be bound in respect of such last mentioned debts and engagements shall continue the same as if this Ordinance had not been passed.

FREDK. H. ROBE,
Lieutenant Governor.

Passed the Legislative Council this first day of September, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-six.

W. L. O'HALLORAN,
Clerk of Council.
