26. Sections 207 and 208 of the principal Act are repealed and the following sections are enacted and inserted in their place:

207. (1) Any inspector may at any time enter into or upon any premises, place, factory or shop for the purpose of exercising or performing any of his powers or functions under this Act, or for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not any provision of this Act has been complied with.

(2) In the exercise of his powers under subsection (1) of this section an inspector may be accompanied by such other persons as to him seem necessary or desirable in the circumstances.
(3) Any inspector may—

(a) inspect or take copies of any book, paper or document or any record of any description, whether or not of the same kind as the foregoing, which in his opinion may disclose information as to whether or not this Act is being complied with;

(b) require any person to answer any question put to him by the inspector, whether that question is put to him directly or through an interpreter;

and

(c) inspect, examine, photograph, or otherwise make a record of, or make tests on, any matter or thing he finds in or on any premises, place, factory or shop referred to in subsection (1) of this section or remove any such matter or thing for the purposes of making any such inspection or examination.

(4) The person for the time being in charge of any premises, place, factory or shop, or the person having the custody or control of any matter or thing shall not refuse or fail to do all things necessary to facilitate the exercise by an inspector of the powers conferred on him by this section.

Penalty: Two hundred dollars.

(5) A person to whom a question is put pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section shall not refuse or fail to answer that question to the best of his knowledge, information and belief.

Penalty: Two hundred dollars.

208. (1) An inspector, former inspector or any person exercising any power or function under this Act shall not otherwise than in the course of his official duty make public any information that comes to his knowledge in the exercise of his powers and functions.

(2) An inspector shall not have any direct or indirect financial interests, other than such an interest that has been disclosed in writing to the Secretary for Labour and Industry, in any premises or place subject to his inspection.
(3) Any person who is guilty of any contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

27. Sections 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215 and 216 of the principal Act are repealed.

28. Division II of Part XIII of the principal Act, comprising section 218, and the heading thereto is repealed.
