“the Deputy Director” means the person for the time being holding office as Deputy Director of Planning under the Planning and Development Act, 1966-1971.

(2) During the absence of the Director by reason of illness or any other cause or during a vacancy in the office of the Director, the Deputy Director shall perform all such functions as are assigned to the Director under this Act.

(3) Where pursuant to subsection (2) of this section the Deputy Director performs the functions of the Director, references in this Act to the Director shall be read as a reference to the Deputy Director.

3. The Governor may by proclamation declare an area of land, of not more than ten thousand hectares, within the establishment area to be the designated site for the purposes of this Act.

4. (1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, either by agreement or compulsorily acquire any land within the boundaries of the designated site for the purposes of establishing a new town.

(2) In this section “land” includes any estate or interest (legal or equitable) in land and any easement, right, power or privilege in, under, over, affecting, or in connection with, land.

5. (1) In addition to and without derogating from the powers conferred on the Director by Part VI of the Planning and Development Act, 1966-1971, the Director may refuse approval to a plan of subdivision or a plan of re-subdivision of any land that lies wholly or partly within the establishment area if, in the opinion of the Director, the approval of that plan would be prejudicial to the establishment of a new town within the establishment area.

(2) The Planning and Development Act, 1966-1971, shall apply to and in relation to a decision of the Director under subsection (1) of this section in all respects as if that decision were a decision of the Director under that Act.
6. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section on and after the date of the proclamation a person shall not, in relation to any land within the boundaries of the designated site—

(a) change the existing use to which land or any buildings or structures thereon were being put immediately before that day;

or

(b) construct, convert or alter any building or structure thereon, without the consent in writing of the Authority.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the construction, conversion or alteration of any building or structure on any land referred to in subsection (1) of this section which any person or body is required and authorized by any Act to carry out shall be deemed to be a construction, conversion or alteration of the building or structure carried out with the consent in writing of the Authority pursuant to that subsection.

(3) The Authority may refuse to give its consent under this section in any case where it is satisfied that the giving of that consent would be prejudicial to the establishment of a new town within the boundaries of the designated site.

(4) A consent under this section may be given absolutely or subject to conditions imposed by the Authority and where any person purports to do or causes or permits an act of any kind to be done in pursuance of such a consent and such act is in breach of a condition to which the consent is subject, such act shall be deemed to have been done without the consent of the Authority and the consent may be revoked by the Authority and upon such revocation shall, for the purposes of this Act and the Land Acquisition Act, 1969, be deemed never to have been given by the Authority.

(5) The Planning and Development Act, 1966-1971, shall apply to and in relation to a decision of the Authority under this section in all respects as if that decision were a decision of the Authority under that Act.

7. (1) The owner of any land within the boundaries of the designated site may apply to the Minister for the grant by the Minister of a certificate in respect of that land and subject to this section the Minister may grant such a certificate but no proceedings shall be instituted and heard in any court or tribunal in respect of the grant of such a certificate or the failure or refusal of the Minister to grant such a certificate.
(2) The Minister shall not grant a certificate in respect of any land unless upon such evidence as he considers adequate he is satisfied that the owner of the land has in consequence of the proclamation under section 3 of this Act suffered financial hardship or is likely to suffer financial hardship.

(3) Upon a certificate being granted under subsection (1) of this section the Authority shall forthwith either by agreement or compulsorily acquire the land the subject of the certificate.

(4) A certificate under this section shall set out—

(a) the name of the owner;

(b) a description of the land;

and

(c) a statement that the Minister is satisfied as to the matter set out in subsection (2) of this section.

8. Where any sale of land the whole or any part of which is situated within the establishment area takes place on or after the twenty-ninth day of March, 1972, and the Minister is satisfied that the price paid in relation to that sale was by reason of the enactment of this Act higher or lower than the price that would have been paid for that land had this Act not been enacted, the Minister may, after consulting with the Valuer-General, attribute in relation to that sale a price that in his opinion would have been a fair price for the land had this Act not been enacted and for the purposes of determining the value of any land acquired under this Act the price so attributed shall be deemed to be the price paid in relation to that sale.

9. The Land Acquisition Act, 1969, in its application to the acquisition of land under this Act shall be read and construed as if—

(a) paragraph (k) were omitted from section 25 of that Act and the following paragraph were inserted in its stead—

(k) on and after the twenty-ninth day of March, 1972, any sales, transactions, arrangements, licences or approvals effected or obtained with respect to the land, and any improvements to the land effected, on or after that day shall not be taken into account unless it is proved that they were effected or obtained bona fide;

or

(iv) the construction, conversion or alteration of any building or structure on the land that had the consent in writing of the Authority pursuant to section 6 of the Murray New Town (Land Acquisition) Act, 1972, and that occurred on or after the date of the proclamation as defined for the purposes of that Act and before the date of acquisition, the amount of that enhancement shall be taken into account.
