No. 37 of 1976

An Act to repeal the Salaries Adjustment (Public Service and Teachers) Act, 1960-1975, and to make provision for the adjustment of salaries of certain employees and for other purposes.

[Assented to 21st October, 1976]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the “Salaries Adjustment (Public Offices) Act, 1976”.

2. This Act shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3. The Salaries Adjustment (Public Service and Teachers) Act, 1960, and the Salaries Adjustment (Public Service and Teachers) Act Amendment Act, 1975, are repealed.

5. Nothing in this Act shall affect any right to salary in respect of a public office that would exist had this Act not been enacted.

6. In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—
   “commencing date” in relation to a retro-active determination, means the date as from which the determination is expressed to have effect:
   “public office” means an office or place—
   (a) constituted or created by, or pursuant to, an Act;
   (b) to which a person has been appointed by the Governor in the exercise of his executive authority;
   or
   (c) being any prescribed office or place:
7. (1) Where—
   (a) a retro-active determination is made in relation to a public office; and
   (b) a person occupied that office for some time during the retro-active period but had ceased to occupy that office on or before the date on which the determination was made, that person shall be entitled to be paid a salary as so increased by that determination, in respect of the period, subsequent to the commencing date, for which he occupied that office.

   (2) Subsection (1) of this section shall apply to and in relation to every retro-active determination made after the commencement of this Act whether the retro-active period in relation to that determination commenced before, on or after the commencement of this Act.

8. The Governor may make such regulations as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

W. R. CROCKER, Governor's Deputy
