17. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 105 thereof:—

106. (1) The association may, in respect of any financial year, by notice in writing, require the members of the association, and the occupiers of land within the district, to pay to the association such contributions (which may be determined upon such basis as the association thinks fit) towards the expenses incurred, or to be incurred by the association in that financial year, as it considers just.

(2) Any such notice shall fix a date on or before which the contribution must be paid.

(3) Where the contribution is not paid on or before the date fixed by the notice, the contribution shall be augmented by interest at the prescribed rate.
(4) The association may—

(a) charge such membership fees (which shall be repayable at the discretion of the trustees upon cessation of membership);

and

(b) make such charges for goods supplied, or services rendered, by the association, as the association thinks fit.

(5) Any contribution, fee, charge or interest payable under this section may be recovered by the association as a debt.

18. Section 107a of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out from subsection (2) the passage "Crown Lands Act Amendment Act, 1973, not exceeding in total the sum of two hundred and fifteen thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the passage "Crown Lands Act Amendment Act, 1978, not exceeding in total the sum of two hundred and thirty thousand, six hundred dollars";

and

(b) by striking out from subsection (3) the passage "Crown Lands Act Amendment Act, 1973, shall not exceed the sum of ninety-five thousand dollars" and inserting in lieu thereof the passage "Crown Lands Act Amendment Act, 1978, shall not exceed the sum of one hundred and ten thousand six hundred dollars".

19. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 228—

228aa. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, any lands developed by the Minister under paragraph (la) of section 9 of this Act for residential purposes shall not be alienated otherwise than by auction for cash or on terms, or by calling for applications for an agreement to purchase.

20. Section 260 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section is enacted and inserted in its place:—

260. (1) The Minister may acquire lands in any part of the State—

(a) as the site of a town or for purposes incidental thereto; or

(b) for any residential, commercial, industrial or other purpose.

(2) The Land Acquisition Act, 1969-1972, applies in respect of the acquisition of land under this section.

(3) Lands acquired under this section become, upon acquisition, Crown lands for all purposes.

21. Section 271d of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out subsection (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(1) The owner in fee simple of land—
(a) that is unencumbered;
or
(b) that is encumbered only by a registered lease,
may transfer or convey that land, and deliver the title therefor, to the Minister who may accept the land on behalf of the Crown.;

(b) by striking out subsection (3) and inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:

(3) Where land is transferred or conveyed under this section, the following provisions apply:

(a) if the land is transferred or conveyed subject to a lease, the Minister shall, subject to this section, succeed to the rights and obligations of the lessor;
or
(b) in any other case, the Minister may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the land in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Minister, upon the recommendation of the Land Board, determines.;

(c) by striking out subsection (7) and inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:

(7) In this section—
“certificate of title” includes land grant:
“unencumbered” in relation to land means unencumbered by any registered—
(a) mortgage;
(b) charge;
(c) lease;
or
(d) encumbrance of any other kind, whether statutory or otherwise.

and

(d) by inserting after subsection (7) the following subsections:

(8) Where land is transferred or conveyed to the Minister subject to a lease, the lessee shall be liable to land tax in the same manner and to the same extent as if the lease were a perpetual lease.
(9) Where at the time of transfer or conveyance of land subject to a lease there were any outstanding rates or taxes due in respect of the land, the Minister may recover those rates or taxes as a debt due to him from the lessee.

22. The following section is enacted and inserted in the principal Act after section 271d thereof:

271e. (1) Where—
(a) a lease in respect of land within an irrigation area was granted pursuant to statute;
and
(b) the land in respect of which the lease was granted ceases to form part of the irrigation area, the lease shall, by force of this section, be cancelled.

(2) Upon cancellation of a lease under this section, a lease shall be granted under this Act to the former lessee upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Minister.

(3) Any such lease shall be granted subject to registered interests to which the lease cancelled by force of this section was, immediately before that cancellation, subject.

(4) In determining the terms and conditions of a lease under subsection (2) of this section, the Minister is not bound to observe the provisions of any other Act.

(5) In this section—

"irrigation area" means an irrigation area within the meaning of the Irrigation Act, 1930-1977.

23. Section 288 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out from subsection (1) the passage "including regulations for fees, and for penalties not exceeding forty dollars for any one offence";

and

(b) by striking out subsection (1a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(1a) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, those regulations may—

(a) provide for the survey of—

(i) Crown lands;

(ii) lands reserved for, or dedicated to, any public purpose;

and

(iii) land subject to any agreement, lease or licence granted or entered into by or on behalf of the Crown or the Minister;

(b) prescribe, and provide for the recovery of, fees and charges to defray administrative expenses or for any other purpose;

and

(c) prescribe penalties, not exceeding two hundred dollars, for breach of, or non-compliance with, any regulation.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

K. SEAMAN, Governor
