No. 79 of 1981

[Assented to 19 November 1981]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the “Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare Act Amendment Act, 1981”.

(2) The Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare Act, 1972-1978, is in this Act referred to as “the principal Act”.

(3) The principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the “Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare Act, 1972-1981”.

2. Section 24 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out subsection (3) and substituting the following subsections:

(3) An application for registration or the renewal of registration of industrial premises shall be made in writing to the Permanent Head, contain the prescribed particulars and be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(3a) The fee prescribed for registration or the renewal of registration under this section may vary according to the period for which the registration is granted or renewed and according to any other prescribed factors.;

and

(b) by striking out subsection (6) and substituting the following subsection:

(6) Subject to this Act, the registration of any industrial premises under this section shall expire upon the expiration of the period specified by the Permanent Head as the period for which the registration is granted or renewed unless renewed or further renewed in accordance with this Act before the expiration of that period.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

K. D. SEAMAN, Governor
