1850.

No. 15.

ORDINANCE Enacted by the Governor of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

To amend and extend an Ordinance of Tenth October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-nine, No. 14, "For the Making and Improving of Roads in South Australia."

[30th December, 1850.]

WHEREAS an Ordinance was passed by the Governor of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, bearing date the Tenth day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-nine, "For the Making and Improving of Roads in South Australia," whereby, among other things, on the recital that it was expedient that funds should be raised for making, maintaining, and improving the main roads by licence duties on carriages of every description using the main and district roads, it was enacted that there should be paid for and in respect of every licence and every carriage mentioned and described in Schedule B, the several duties or sums respectively specified and set set forth in the same Schedule, to be applied to the purposes of the said Ordinance, subject to the orders of the Central Board:
And whereas such licence duties have been found objectionable, and it is expedient that they should be repealed:

Commencement.

Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor of South Australia,
with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.
That this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the passing thereof, and shall be construed, together with the recited Ordinance, as one Act.

II. And be it Enacted, That Sections Forty-third to Fifty-fifth, inclusive, and Schedule B, and generally so much of the said Ordinance as relates to the imposition, collection, and application of the said licence duties, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed:
And all moneys heretofore received for or in respect of any such licence or carriage shall be refunded by the Central Board to the parties respectively, by whom the same shall have been paid.

III. And be it Enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal, alter, or affect the said Ordinance, or anything done in pursuance or in execution thereof, farther than as herein mentioned; but in every other respect the same shall remain in full force and virtue.

H. E. F. YOUNG.
Lieutenant-Governor.

Passed the Legislative Council, this Thirtieth day of December, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty.

W. L. O'HALLORAN,
Clerk of Council.
