(b) if the number of candidates not excluded from the count equals the number of candidates required to be elected at the election, the returning officer shall make a provisional declaration that the continuing candidate or candidates have been elected;

(c) if the number of continuing candidates does not equal the number of candidates required to be elected at the election, the candidate who then has the fewest ballot papers in his parcel shall be excluded from the count and each ballot paper that was in his parcel shall be placed in the parcel of the continuing candidate next in order of the voter's preference or, if the voter has not indicated a preference for a continuing candidate, the ballot paper shall be set aside as finally dealt with;

(b) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) or any other paragraph of this subsection, where the total number of all first preference votes does not exceed—

or

(ii) where a different number is prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph—that number,

the number of votes of any kind contained in the ballot papers shall, for the purposes of any counting or calculation under paragraph (a) or any other paragraph of this subsection, be taken to be the number obtained by multiplying the number of votes of that kind contained in the ballot papers by one hundred;

(c) unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes of each elected candidate shall be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows:

(i) the number of surplus votes of the elected candidate shall be divided by the number of first preference votes received by him and the resulting fraction shall be the transfer value;

(ii) the total number of the first preference votes for the elected candidate that are contained in ballot papers that express the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate shall be multiplied by the transfer value, the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) shall be added to the number of first preference votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot papers shall be transferred to the continuing candidate, and, where any continuing candidate has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any such transfer, the returning officer shall make a provisional declaration that the candidate has been elected;

(d) unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes (if any) of any candidate elected under paragraph (c), or elected subsequently under this paragraph, shall be transferred to the continuing candidates in accordance with paragraph (c) (i) and (ii) and, where any continuing candidate has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any such transfer, the returning officer shall make a provisional declaration that the candidate has been elected;

(e) where a continuing candidate has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer under paragraph (c) or (d) of the surplus votes of a particular elected candidate, no votes of any other candidate shall be transferred to the continuing candidate;

(f) for the purposes of the application of paragraph (c) (i) and (ii) in relation to a transfer under paragraph (d) or (h) of the surplus votes of an elected candidate, each ballot paper of the elected candidate that was obtained by him on a transfer under this subsection shall be dealt with as if any vote it expressed for the elected candidate were a first preference vote, as if the name of any other candidate previously elected or excluded had not been on the ballot paper and as if the numbers indicating subsequent preferences had been altered accordingly;

(g) where, after the counting of first preference votes or the election of a candidate and the transfer of the surplus votes (if any) of the elected candidate that are capable of being transferred, no candidate has, or less than the number of candidates required to be elected have, received a number of votes equal to the quota, the candidate who has the fewest votes shall be excluded and all his votes shall be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows:

(i) the total number of the first preference votes for the excluded candidate that are contained in ballot papers that express the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate shall be transferred, each first preference vote at a transfer value of one, to the continuing candidate and added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot papers shall be transferred to the continuing candidate;

(ii) the total number (if any) of other votes obtained by the excluded candidate on transfers under this subsection shall be transferred from the excluded candidate in the order of the transfers on which he obtained them, the votes obtained on the earliest transfer being transferred first, as follows:

(A) the total number of votes transferred to the excluded candidate from a particular candidate that are contained in ballot papers that express the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate shall be multiplied by the transfer value at which the votes were so transferred to the excluded candidate;

(B) the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) shall be added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate;

(C) all those ballot papers shall be transferred to the continuing candidate;

(h) where any continuing candidate has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer under paragraph (g) or (i) of votes of an excluded candidate, the returning officer shall make a provisional declaration that the candidate has been elected and, unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes (if any) of the candidate so elected shall be transferred in accordance with paragraph (c) (i) and (ii), except that, where the candidate so elected is elected before all the votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred, the surplus votes (if any) of the candidate so elected shall not be transferred until the remaining votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred in accordance with paragraph (g) (i) and (ii) to continuing candidates;

(i) subject to paragraph (k), where, after the exclusion of a candidate and the transfer of the votes (if any) of the excluded candidate that are capable of being transferred, no continuing candidate has received a number of votes greater than the quota, the continuing candidate who has the fewest votes shall be excluded and his votes shall be transferred in accordance with paragraph (g) (i) and (ii);

(j) where a candidate is elected as a result of a transfer of the first preference votes of an excluded candidate or a transfer of all the votes of an excluded candidate that were transferred to the excluded candidate from a particular candidate, no other votes of the excluded candidate shall be transferred to the candidate so elected;
(k) in respect of the last vacancy for which two continuing candidates remain, the returning officer shall make a provisional declaration that the continuing candidate who has the larger number of votes has been elected notwithstanding that that number is below the quota and, if those candidates have an equal number of votes, the returning officer shall, in the presence of any scrutineers who may be present, draw lots to determine which of the candidates is to be elected;

(l) notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, where, on the completion of a transfer of votes under this subsection, the number of continuing candidates is equal to the number of remaining unfilled vacancies, the returning officer shall make a provisional declaration that those candidates have been elected;

(m) for the purposes of this subsection—

(i) the order of election of candidates shall be taken to be in accordance with the order of the count or transfer as a result of which they were elected, the candidates (if any) elected on the count of first preference votes being taken to be the earliest elected;

and

(ii) where two or more candidates are elected as a result of the same count or transfer, the order in which they shall be taken to have been elected shall be in accordance with the relative numbers of their votes, the candidate with the largest number of votes being taken to be the earliest elected but, if any two or more of those candidates each have the same number of votes, the order in which they shall be taken to have been elected shall be taken to be in accordance with the relative numbers of their votes at the last count or transfer before their election at which each of them had a different number of votes, the candidate with the largest number of votes at that count or transfer being taken to be the earliest elected and, if there has been no such count or transfer, the returning officer shall, in the presence of any scrutineers who may be present, draw lots to determine the order in which they shall be taken to have been elected;

(n) subject to paragraphs (o) and (p), where, after any count or transfer under this subsection, two or more candidates have surplus votes, the order of any transfers of the surplus votes of those candidates shall be in accordance with the relative sizes of the surpluses, the largest surplus being transferred first;

(o) subject to paragraph (p), where, after any count or transfer under this subsection, two or more candidates have equal surpluses, the order of any transfers of the surplus votes of those candidates shall be in accordance with the relative numbers of votes of those candidates at the last count or transfer at which each of those candidates had a different number of votes, the surplus of the candidate with the largest number of votes at that count or transfer being transferred first but, if there has been no such count or transfer, the returning officer shall, in the presence of any scrutineers who may be present, draw lots to determine the order in which the surpluses shall be dealt with;

(p) where, after any count or transfer under this subsection, a candidate obtains surplus votes, those surplus votes shall not be transferred before the transfer of any surplus votes obtained by any other candidate on an earlier count or transfer;

(q) where the candidate who has the fewest votes is required to be excluded and two or more candidates each have the fewest votes, whichever of those candidates had the fewest votes at the last count or transfer at which each of those candidates had a different number of votes shall be excluded but, if there has been no such count or transfer, the returning officer shall, in the presence of any scrutineers who may be present, draw lots to determine which candidate shall be excluded;

(r) where a candidate is elected by reason that the number of first preference votes received by him, or the aggregate of first preference votes received by him and all other votes obtained by him on transfers under this subsection, is equal to the quota, all the ballot papers expressing those votes shall be set aside as finally dealt with;

(s) a ballot paper shall be set aside as exhausted where on a transfer it is found that the paper expresses no preference for any continuing candidate;

(t) for the purposes of this subsection, a transfer under paragraph (c), (d) or (h) of the surplus votes of any elected candidate, a transfer in accordance with paragraph (g) (i) of all first preference votes of an excluded candidate or a transfer in accordance with paragraph (g) (ii) of all the votes of an excluded candidate that were transferred to him from a particular candidate shall each be regarded as constituting a separate transfer.

(8) The returning officer may, of his own motion, during the period of seventy-two hours referred to in subsection (7) cause a recount to be made of the votes cast in relation to any vacancy or vacancies.

(9) If the period for requesting a recount expires without such a request having been made and the returning officer has not caused a recount to be made pursuant to subsection (8), the returning officer shall confirm his provisional declaration, and forthwith make out a return to the chief executive officer certifying the election of specified candidates to specified vacancies.

(10) Where a recount is made, the returning officer shall, according to the result of the recount—

(a) confirm his provisional declaration;

or

(b) revoke his provisional declaration and make a final declaration in accordance with the result of the recount,
