(a) it may, in the case of a registered person, exercise, by order, one or more of the following powers:

(i) administer a reprimand;

(ii) order payment of a fine not exceeding $2 000;

(3) In the course of proceedings, the Board may—

(a) receive in evidence a transcript of evidence taken in proceedings before a court, tribunal or other body constituted under the law of South Australia or of any other State or Territory of the Commonwealth or of another country, and draw any conclusions of fact from the evidence that it considers proper;

50. Where—

(a) a complaint alleging unprofessional conduct has been laid before the Board against a person who is registered under this Act and who was registered pursuant to legislation that corresponds to this Act in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth or in another country;

and

(b) the registration of that person in that other State, Territory or country was suspended or cancelled by reason of conduct that is the subject matter of the complaint before the Board, the Board may suspend that person's registration under this Act pending its determination of the complaint.

(2) An appeal must be instituted within 60 days of the date of the decision, reprimand or order appealed against, but the Supreme Court may, if it is satisfied that it is just and reasonable in the circumstances to do so, dispense with the requirement that the appeal should be instituted within that time.

(3) The Supreme Court may, on the hearing of an appeal, exercise any one or more of the following powers:

(a) affirm, vary or quash the decision, reprimand or order against which the appeal has been instituted and make any consequential or other order that may be just in the circumstances;

(b) remit the subject matter of the appeal to the Board for further hearing or consideration or for rehearing;

(c) make any order as to costs.

(4) When ordering the remission of the subject matter of an appeal to the Board for rehearing, the Court may disqualify a member from rehearing the matter and, in that case, the deputy of that member may, if the deputy is not also disqualified, take the place of that member for the purposes of the hearing.

52. (1) Where an order has been made by the Board and an appeal against the order has been instituted, or is intended, the operation of the order may be suspended until the determination of the appeal.

(2) A suspension under subsection (1) may be terminated—

(a) if the intended appeal is not in fact instituted;

or

(b) if the appeal is withdrawn or lapses.

(3) A suspension may be granted or terminated under this section by the Board or by the Supreme Court.

53. (1) The Supreme Court may, at any time, on application by a registered person, vary or revoke a condition imposed by the Court in relation to that person's registration under this Act.

(a) an order of a court to pay damages or other compensation in respect of the claim;

or

(b) the making of an agreement to pay a sum of money in settlement of the claim (whether with or without a denial of liability), provide the Board with prescribed information relating to the claim.

Penalty: $2 000.

Penalty: $2 000.

59. Where conduct constitutes an offence and is also a ground for disciplinary action under this Act, the taking of disciplinary action under this Act is not a bar to conviction and punishment for the offence, nor is conviction and punishment for the offence a bar to disciplinary action under this Act.

60. The offences constituted by this Act are summary offences.

61. (1) The Governor may, on the recommendation of the Board, make such regulations as are contemplated by this Act or as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.
