his claim to vote shall be rejected.

(2) Declaration voting papers shall not be issued to an elector (not being a registered declaration voter) except on an application made in the prescribed manner, and such an application must be supported by a written declaration of the ground of the applicant's entitlement to make a declaration vote, which—

(5) The Electoral Commissioner shall from time to time revise the register of declaration voters.

(6) The register of declaration voters shall be available for inspection, without fee, at the office of the Electoral Commissioner.

75. or
(b) he makes a declaration, in the prescribed form, to the effect that the declaration voting papers have not been received by him.

(2) Where an elector exercises an ordinary vote at a polling place after making a declaration under subsection (1) (b), any declaration ballot paper purporting to be a ballot paper of that elector shall not be admitted to the scrutiny.

DIVISION VI—COMPULSORY VOTING

85. (1) Subject to subsection (2), it is the duty of every elector to record his vote at each election in a district for which he is enrolled.

(2) An elector who leaves the ballot paper unmarked but who otherwise observes the formalities of voting is not in breach of the duty imposed by subsection (1).

(3) Within the prescribed period after the close of each election, the Electoral Commissioner shall send by post to each elector who appears not to have voted at the election a notice, in the prescribed form—

(a) notifying the elector that he appears to have failed to vote at the election and that it is an offence to fail to vote at an election without a valid and sufficient reason;

and

(b) calling on him to show cause why proceedings for failing to vote at the election without a valid and sufficient reason should not be instituted against him, but the Electoral Commissioner, if satisfied that the elector is dead or had a valid and sufficient reason for not voting, need not send such a notice.

(4) Before sending any such notice, the Electoral Commissioner shall insert in the notice a date, not being less than 21 days after the date of posting of the notice, on which the form attached to the notice, duly filled up and signed by the elector, is to be in the hands of the Electoral Commissioner.

(5) Every elector to whom a notice under this section has been sent shall fill up the form at the foot of the notice by stating in it the reasons (if any) why proceedings for failing to vote at the election should not be instituted against him, sign the form, and post it so as to reach the Electoral Commissioner not later than the date inserted in the notice.

(6) If any elector is absent or unable, by reason of physical incapacity, to fill up, sign and post the form, within the time allowed under subsection (4), any other elector who has personal knowledge of the facts may fill up, sign and post the form, duly witnessed, within that time, and, in that case, the elector shall be deemed to have complied with subsection (5).

(7) Every elector who—

(a) fails to vote at an election without a valid and sufficient reason for the failure;
(b) on receipt of a notice in accordance with subsection (3), fails to fill up, sign and post the form (duly witnessed) which is attached to the notice within the time allowed under subsection (4); or

(c) makes a statement in the form that is, to his knowledge, false or misleading in a material particular,

(b) the elector was absent from the State on polling day;

(c) the elector had a conscientious objection, based on religious grounds, to voting at the election;

or

(d) there is some other proper reason for the elector's failure to vote.

(9) Proceedings for an offence against this section shall not be instituted except by the Electoral Commissioner or an officer authorized in writing by the Electoral Commissioner.

(10) In proceedings for an offence against this section, a certificate apparently signed by an officer and certifying that the defendant failed to vote at an election shall be accepted as proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

DIVISION VII—MISCELLANEOUS

86. (1) The presiding officer at a polling booth may appoint a suitable person to act in his position during a temporary absence of the presiding officer from the polling booth.

(2) A person appointed under subsection (1) shall, while acting in the position of the presiding officer, have all the powers, functions and responsibilities of the presiding officer.

87. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a ballot box shall be kept securely closed and sealed so as to prevent the introduction or removal of any paper or object except—

(a) when the ballot box is immediately required for the purpose of receiving voting papers;

or

(b) when the voting papers are required for the purposes of scrutiny.

(2) An officer shall, before voting papers are first deposited in a ballot box for the purposes of an election, publicly open the ballot box and exhibit it empty.

88. (1) If for any reason it is not practicable to proceed with polling at a polling place on polling day, the Electoral Commissioner may adjourn polling at that polling place for a period not exceeding 21 days.
(2) Where for any reason the polling is adjourned at any polling place, only those electors for the district for which the polling place is appointed who were entitled to vote on polling day and who have not already voted, shall be entitled to vote at the adjourned polling.

PART X
THE SCRUTINY

DIVISION I—PRELIMINARY

89. (1) The result of an election shall be ascertained by scrutiny.

(2) The scrutiny shall commence as soon as practicable after the close of poll and may be adjourned from time to time as may be necessary until the counting of the votes is complete.

90. (1) All proceedings at the scrutiny shall be open to the inspection of the scrutineers.

(2) If a scrutineer objects to a ballot paper as being informal, the officer conducting the scrutiny shall mark the ballot paper “admitted” or “rejected” according to his decision to admit or reject the ballot paper.

(3) Nothing in this section prevents the officer conducting the scrutiny from rejecting a ballot paper as informal although it is not objected to.

91. (1) At the scrutiny, the returning officer or a deputy returning officer shall produce all applications for declaration voting papers, and shall produce unopened all envelopes containing declaration ballot papers received up to the end of the period of 7 days immediately following the close of the poll by him, or received up to the close of the poll by any other officer and shall—

(a) if satisfied—

(i) that the voter is entitled to vote at the election and has not voted at the election otherwise than by making a declaration vote;

and

(ii) in the case of declaration voting papers of voters whose votes were not taken before an officer—

(A) that the signature of the declarant corresponds with the signature on the application for declaration voting papers;

and

(B) that the vote was recorded before the close of poll, accept the ballot paper for further scrutiny, but, if not so satisfied, disallow the ballot paper without opening the envelope in which it is contained;

(b) having determined that a ballot paper is to be accepted for further scrutiny, withdraw it from its envelope and, without inspecting or unfolding it or allowing any other person to do so, place it in a locked and sealed ballot box reserved for such ballot papers:

(c) seal up in separate parcels and preserve—

(i) all envelopes endorsed with declarations relating to declaration ballot papers accepted for further scrutiny;

and

(ii) all unopened envelopes containing declaration ballot papers disallowed;

and

(d) proceed with the scrutiny of the declaration ballot papers which have been accepted for further scrutiny.

(2) Where two or more declaration ballot papers in respect of the same election are received from the same elector, the first to come into the hands of the returning officer or deputy returning officer shall, subject to this section, be accepted for further scrutiny and the remainder shall be rejected.

DIVISION II—INTERPRETATION AND VALIDITY OF BALLOT PAPERS

92. (1) This section applies only in relation to a Legislative Council election.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the voting ticket square for a particular candidate or group;

and

(b) there is 1 voting ticket registered for the purposes of the election in relation to that candidate or group,

the ballot paper shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with that voting ticket.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the voting ticket square for a particular candidate or group;

and

(b) there are 2 voting tickets registered for the purposes of the election in relation to that candidate or group, then the ballot paper shall be grouped with other ballot papers marked in the same manner and—

(c) if the number of those ballot papers is an even number—half of them shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with one ticket and half in accordance with the other;

or

(d) if the number of those ballot papers is not an even number—

(i) one of the ballot papers shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with whichever of the 2 tickets is determined by lot by the returning officer;
(4) Where a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in a voting ticket square but also indicates preferences for individual candidates, the following provisions apply:

(a) if the indication of preferences for individual candidates would, if it stood alone, constitute a valid vote, that indication of preferences shall be taken to be the vote of the voter and the mark in the voting ticket square shall be disregarded;

(b) if the indication of preferences for individual candidates would not, if it stood alone, constitute a valid vote, it shall be disregarded and the vote of the voter shall be taken to have been expressed by the mark in the voting ticket square.

93. (1) This section applies only in relation to a House of Assembly election.

(2) Where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of a particular candidate and indicates no further preference;

and

(b) there is 1 voting ticket registered for the purposes of the election in relation to that candidate, the ballot paper shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with that voting ticket.

(3) Where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of a particular candidate and indicates no further preference;

and

(b) there are 2 voting tickets registered for the purposes of the election in relation to that candidate,

then the ballot paper shall be grouped with other ballot papers marked in the same manner and—

(c) if the number of those ballot papers is an even number—half of them shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with one ticket and half in accordance with the other;

or

(d) if the number of those ballot papers is not an even number—

(i) one of the ballot papers shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with whichever of the 2 tickets is determined by lot by the returning officer;
(ii) half the remainder (if any) shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with one ticket and half in accordance with the other.

(4) Where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of a particular candidate and proceeds to indicate further preferences by consecutive numbers;

(b) there is 1 voting ticket registered for the purposes of the election in relation to that candidate;

(c) the preferences indicated by the voter are consistent with that voting ticket;

and

(d) the ballot paper would, apart from this subsection, be informal, the ballot paper shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with that voting ticket.

(5) Where—

(a) a voter marks a ballot paper by placing the number 1 in the square opposite the name of a particular candidate and proceeds to indicate further preferences by consecutive numbers;

(b) there are 2 voting tickets registered for the purposes of the election in relation to the candidate;

(c) the preferences indicated by the voter are consistent with one or both of those voting tickets;

and

(d) the ballot paper would, apart from this subsection, be informal, the ballot paper, if consistent with both voting tickets, shall be treated as if it had been marked only with the number 1 and dealt with in accordance with subsection (3), but if it is consistent with one only of the voting tickets, it shall be deemed to have been marked in accordance with that voting ticket.

94. (1) Subject to this section, a ballot paper is informal if—

(a) it is not authenticated by the initials of the officer by whom it was issued, or by an official mark as prescribed;

(b) it has no vote indicated on it, or it does not indicate, in the manner required by this Act, the order of the voter’s preference for all candidates in the election;

(c) it has upon it any mark or writing (not authorized by this Act or the regulations) by which the voter can be identified;

or

(d) in the case of a ballot paper required by this Act to be deposited in a ballot box—it is not so deposited.

(2) A ballot paper that is not duly authenticated by initials or an official mark is not informal by reason of subsection (1) (a) if the officer responsible for considering whether the ballot paper should be admitted is satisfied that it is an authentic ballot paper on which a voter has marked his vote.
(3) Where a voter indicates by consecutive numbers commencing with the number 1 the order of his preference for all candidates on a ballot paper except one—

(a) the ballot paper is not informal;

and

(b) it shall be presumed that the candidate for whom no preference is expressed is the one least preferred by the voter and that the voter has accordingly indicated the order of his preference for all candidates.

(4) A ballot paper to which effect can be given under the provisions of this Division relating to registered voting tickets is not informal by reason of subsection (1) (b).

(5) Where a candidate in a Legislative Council election dies between the date of nomination and polling day—

(a) a ballot paper is not informal by reason only—

(i) of the inclusion on the ballot paper of the name of the deceased candidate;

(ii) of the marking of any consecutive number opposite that name;

or

(iii) of the omission to place any number opposite that name, or of any resultant failure to indicate in consecutive order the voter's preferences;

and

(b) a preference indicated on the ballot paper for that candidate shall be ignored and subsequent preferences shall be renumbered accordingly.

(6) Where—

(a) a ballot paper has not been marked by a voter in the manner required by this Act;

but

(b) notwithstanding that fact, the voter's intention is clear.

the ballot paper is not informal and shall be counted as if the voter's intention had been properly expressed in the manner required by this Act.

(7) A ballot paper shall not be informal except for a reason specified in this section.

DIVISION III—COUNTING OF VOTES

95. (1) In a Legislative Council election, the scrutiny shall, subject to this Act, be conducted, and the vacancies shall be filled, in the manner set out in this section.

(2) Each assistant returning officer shall, in the presence of an assistant presiding officer or a poll clerk, and of such authorized scrutineers as may attend—
(a) open all ballot boxes sent to him, or received from polling places within or for that portion of the district in which he exercises his powers;

(b) reject all informal ballot papers, and arrange the unrejected ballot papers under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate;

(c) count the first preference votes given for each candidate on all unrejected ballot papers;

(d) make out and sign a statement setting out the number of first preference votes given for each candidate, and the number of informal ballot papers;

(e) place in a separate parcel all the ballot papers which have been rejected as informal;

(f) transmit the following information, by telegram or in some other expeditious manner, to the deputy returning officer for the division:

(i) the number of first preference votes given for each candidate;

and

(ii) the total number of ballot papers rejected as informal;

(g) seal up the parcels and endorse on each parcel a description of its contents;

and

(h) transmit the parcels to the deputy returning officer with the least possible delay, together with the statement specified in paragraph (d), and the deputy returning officer shall open all ballot boxes not opened by an assistant returning officer and shall conduct the scrutiny of the ballot papers contained in those boxes, as far as applicable, in the manner described above.

(3) The deputy returning officer shall then transmit all voting papers to the returning officer for the Legislative Council.

(4) The returning officer for the Legislative Council shall—

(a) open the sealed parcels of ballot papers received from the deputy returning officers and shall make a fresh scrutiny of the ballot papers contained in the parcels, and for that purpose he shall have the same powers as if the fresh scrutiny were the original scrutiny, and may reverse any decision given by an assistant or deputy returning officer in relation to the original scrutiny;

(b) arrange the unrejected ballot papers so scrutinized by him under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate;

and

(c) count the first preference votes given for each candidate on those ballot papers.
(5) Where, for the purposes of the succeeding provisions of this section, the number of ballot papers or votes in any category is required to be ascertained or a quota or transfer value is required to be determined, the returning officer shall determine the quota or transfer value.

(6) The number of first preference votes given for each candidate and the total number of all such votes shall be ascertained and a quota shall be determined by dividing the total number of first preference votes by 1 more than the number of candidates required to be elected and by increasing the quotient so obtained (disregarding any remainder) by 1, and any candidate who has received a number of first preference votes equal to or greater than the quota shall be elected.

(7) Unless all the vacancies have been filled, the number (if any) of votes in excess of the quota (in this section referred to as "surplus votes") of each elected candidate shall be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows:

(a) the number of surplus votes of the elected candidate shall be divided by the number of first preference votes received by him and the resulting fraction shall be the transfer value;

(b) the total number of ballot papers of the elected candidate that express the first preference vote for him and the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate shall be multiplied by the transfer value, the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) shall be added to the number of first preference votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot papers shall be transferred to the continuing candidate.

and any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any such transfer shall be elected.

(8) Unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes (if any) of any candidate elected under subsection (7), or elected subsequently under this subsection, shall be transferred to the continuing candidates in accordance with subsection (7) (a) and (b), and any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of any such transfer shall be elected.

(9) Where a continuing candidate has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer under subsection (7) or (8) of the surplus votes of a particular elected candidate, no votes of any other candidate shall be transferred to the continuing candidate.

(10) For the purposes of the application of subsection (7) (a) and (b) in relation to a transfer under subsection (8) or (12) of the surplus votes of an elected candidate, each ballot paper of the elected candidate that was obtained by him on a transfer under this section shall be dealt with as if any vote it expressed for the elected candidate were a first preference vote, as if the name of any other candidate previously elected or excluded had not been on the ballot paper and as if the numbers indicating subsequent preferences had been altered accordingly.

(11) Where, after the counting of first preference votes or the transfer of surplus votes (if any) of elected candidates, no candidate has, or less than the number of candidates required to be elected have, received a number of votes equal to the quota, the candidate who has the fewest votes shall be excluded and all his votes shall be transferred to the continuing candidates as follows:
(a) the total number of ballot papers of the excluded candidate that express the first preference vote for him and the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate shall be transferred, each ballot paper at a transfer value of 1, to the continuing candidate and added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate and all those ballot papers shall be transferred to the continuing candidate;

(b) the total number (if any) of other votes obtained by the excluded candidate on transfers under this section shall be transferred from the excluded candidate in the order of the transfers on which he obtained them, the votes obtained on the earliest transfer being transferred first, as follows:

(i) the total number of ballot papers transferred to the excluded candidate from a particular candidate and expressing the next available preference for a particular continuing candidate shall be multiplied by the transfer value at which the votes were so transferred to the excluded candidate;

(ii) the number so obtained (disregarding any fraction) shall be added to the number of votes of the continuing candidate;

(iii) all those ballot papers shall be transferred to the continuing candidate.

(12) Any continuing candidate who has received a number of votes equal to or greater than the quota on the completion of a transfer under subsection (11) or (13) of votes of an excluded candidate shall be elected, and, unless all the vacancies have been filled, the surplus votes (if any) of the candidate so elected shall be transferred in accordance with subsection (7) (a) and (b), except that, where the candidate so elected is elected before all the votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred, the surplus votes (if any) of the candidate so elected shall not be transferred until the remaining votes of the excluded candidate have been transferred in accordance with subsection (11) (a) and (b) to continuing candidates.

(13) Subject to subsection (15), where, after the transfer of all the votes of an excluded candidate, no continuing candidate has received a number of votes greater than the quota, the continuing candidate who has the fewest votes shall be excluded and his votes shall be transferred in accordance with subsection (11) (a) and (b).

Penalty: $1000.
(2) No employee shall, under pretence that he intends to vote at the election, but without a genuine intention of doing so, obtain leave of absence under this section.

132. (1) Where a person has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage in conduct that constitutes a contravention of, or an offence against, this Act or any other law of the State in its application to elections, the Supreme Court may, on the application of the Electoral Commissioner, grant an injunction restraining that person from engaging in the conduct.

(2) Where—

(a) a person has refused or failed to carry out a legal obligation;

(5) The Supreme Court may discharge or vary an injunction granted under subsection (1), (2) or (4).

(6) Where the Electoral Commissioner makes an application to the Supreme Court for the grant of an injunction under this section, the Court shall not require the Electoral Commissioner or any other person, as a condition of the granting of an interim injunction, to give any undertakings as to damages.

135. All ballot papers, certified lists of voters and declarations used at or in connection with an election shall be preserved, until the election can no longer be questioned.

136. Where a person commits an offence against this Act on behalf, and with the connivance, of another, that other person is also guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as is prescribed for the principal offence.

137. The offences constituted by this Act are, except where otherwise provided, summary offences.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may—

(a) authorize the use of machines or devices of a kind specified in the regulations for the purpose of recording votes, and make any necessary provisions regulating the use of such machines or devices, and the counting of votes recorded by them (which provisions shall, to the extent of any inconsistency, prevail over the provisions of this Act);

(b) prescribe penalties not exceeding $500 for any contravention of a regulation;

(c) provide for the expiation of offences against the provisions of this Act dealing with compulsory enrolment or compulsory voting.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.
