ANNO TRICESIMO OCTAVO

ELIZABETHAE II REGINAE

A.D. 1989

************************************************************

No. 68 of 1989

[Assented to 29 October 1989]

The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

Short title
1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Equal Opportunity Act Amendment Act, 1989.
   (2) The Equal Opportunity Act, 1984, is in this Act referred to as “the principal Act”.

Commencement
2. This Act will come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Amendment of long title
3. The long title to the principal Act is amended by inserting “or intellectual” after “physical”.

Interpretation
4. Section 5 of the principal Act is amended—
   (a) by striking out from subsection (1) the definitions of “employee” and “employer” and substituting the following definitions:
      “employee”—
      (a) includes the holder of a public or statutory office (not being a judicial or magisterial office);
      and
      (b) includes an unpaid worker:
      “employer”—
      (a) in relation to the holder of a public or statutory office—means the Crown;
      (b) in relation to an unpaid worker—means an organization for which the unpaid worker performs services:
      “employment” includes unpaid work;
(b) by inserting in subsection (1) after the definition of "employment agency" the following definitions:

"impairment" means intellectual impairment or physical impairment:

"intellectual impairment" means permanent or temporary loss or imperfect development of mental faculties (except where attributable to mental illness) resulting in reduced intellectual capacity;

(c) by striking out from subsection (1) the definition of "physical impairment" and substituting the following definition:

"physical impairment" means—

(a) the total or partial loss of any function of the body;
(b) the total or partial loss of any part of the body;
(c) the malfunctioning of any part of the body;

or

(d) the malformation or disfigurement of any part of the body, whether permanent or temporary, but does not include intellectual impairment or mental illness;

(d) by inserting in subsection (1) "or umpiring" after "coaching" in paragraph (g) of the definition of "services to which this Act applies";

and

(e) by striking out from subsection (1) "voluntary worker" and substituting "unpaid worker".

Interpretative provisions
5. Section 6 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after subsection (2) the following subsection:

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a person ("the discriminator") treats another unfavourably on the basis of a particular attribute or circumstance if the discriminator treats that other person less favourably than in identical or similar circumstances the discriminator treats, or would treat, a person who does not have that attribute or is not affected by that circumstance.

The Commissioner
6. Section 8 of the principal Act is amended by striking out subsections (3) and (4) and substituting the following subsections:

(3) The Commissioner is not a Public Service employee.

(4) The terms and conditions of the Commissioner’s appointment will be fixed by the Governor on the recommendation of the Commissioner for Public Employment.

(5) A Public Service employee may be appointed to act temporarily as the Commissioner.

Repeal of s. 9 and substitution of new section
7. Section 9 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted:

Staff

9. (1) The Commissioner will have such staff as is necessary for the administration of this Act.

(2) The Commissioner’s staff will consist of Public Service employees.
Functions of the Commissioner

8. Section 11 of the principal Act is amended by striking out from subsections (1) and (2) "physical".

Advice, assistance and research

9. Section 12 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out paragraph (a) of subsection (2) and substituting the following paragraph:

(i) give information or advice on the benefits, assistance or support that may be available in respect of the person's impairment;

(ii) assist the person to gain access to any such benefits, assistance or support;

or

(iii) assist the person, to the extent the Commissioner thinks desirable, to resolve any problem in relation to participation, or attempts to participate, in the economic or social life of the community;

(b) by striking out "handicapped persons" wherever appearing in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (2) and substituting, in each case, "those who have impairments";

(c) by striking out "handicapped persons" last occurring in subsection (2) and substituting "persons who have impairments";

and

(d) by striking out subsection (3) and substituting the following subsection:

(3) Subsection (2) applies to a person whose impairment, whether in itself or in conjunction with the physical environment or the attitude of others, or the person's own attitude, to the impairment, substantially reduces his or her participation, or capacity to participate, in the economic or social life of the community.

Repeal of s. 13

10. Section 13 of the principal Act is repealed.

Annual report by Commissioner

11. Section 14 of the principal Act is amended by striking out from paragraph (b) of subsection (1) "sections 11, 12 and 13" and substituting "sections 11 and 12".

12. Section 28 of the principal Act is repealed by striking out subsections (2) and (3) and substituting the following subsection:

(2) The Registrar is a Public Service employee.

Exemptions

13. Section 34 of the principal Act is amended by striking out subsection (3) and substituting the following subsection:

(3) This Division does not apply to discrimination on the ground of a woman's pregnancy if—
(a) the discrimination is based on the fact that the woman is not, or would not be, able—

(i) to perform adequately, and without endangering herself, the unborn child or other persons, the work genuinely and reasonably required of her;

or

(ii) to respond adequately to situations of emergency that should reasonably be anticipated in connection with her duties;

and

(b) in the case of discrimination arising out of dismissal from employment, there is no other work that the employer could reasonably be expected to offer the woman.

Discrimination by associations on ground of sex, marital status or pregnancy

14. Section 35 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out from subsection (1) "After the expiration of one year from the commencement of this Act, it shall be" and substituting "It is";

(b) by inserting after "sex" in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) "marital status or pregnancy";

(c) by striking out "or" between subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1);

and

(d) by inserting after subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) the following word and subparagraph:

or

(iii) by expelling that member from the association or subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

Insertion of new s. 35a

15. The following section is inserted after section 35 of the principal Act:

Discrimination on the ground of sexuality by trade unions or employer bodies

35a. (1) It is unlawful for an association to which this section applies to discriminate—

(a) against an applicant for membership on the ground of sexuality—

(i) by refusing or failing to admit the applicant to membership, or to a particular class of membership, of the association;

or

(ii) in the terms on which the applicant is, or may be, admitted to membership or a particular class of membership;

or

(b) against a member of the association on the ground of sexuality—

(i) by refusing or failing to provide a particular service or benefit to that member;
(ii) in the terms on which a particular service or benefit is provided to that member;

or

(iii) by expelling the member from the association or subjecting him or her to any other detriment.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), an association to which this section applies discriminates against a member of a particular class in the association if, on application by the member to join a different class of membership in the association, the association accords the member a lower order of precedence on the list of applicants for that class of membership than that accorded to an applicant who is not a member of the association.

(3) In this section—

"association to which this section applies" means—

(a) an association registered under Part IX of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1972;

(b) an organization registered under the Industrial Relations Act 1988 of the Commonwealth;

(c) any other association formed to promote the interests of employers or employees.

18. Section 61 of the principal Act is amended by striking out "to the public, or a section of the public,"

Amendment of the heading to Part V

19. The heading to Part V of the principal Act is amended by striking out "PHYSICAL"

Repeal of s. 66 and substitution of new section

20. Section 66 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted:

Criteria for establishing discrimination on the ground of impairment

66. For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of impairment—
(a) if he or she treats another unfavourably because of the other's impairment, or a past or presumed impairment;

(b) if he or she treats another unfavourably because the other does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—

(i) the nature of the requirement is such that a substantially higher proportion of persons who do not have such an impairment complies, or is able to comply, with the requirement than of those persons who have such an impairment;

and

(ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case;

(c) if he or she treats another unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to persons who have such an impairment, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to persons who have such an impairment;

(d) if, in circumstances where it is unreasonable to do so—

(i) he or she fails to provide special assistance or equipment required by a person in consequence of the person's impairment;

or

(ii) he or she treats another unfavourably because the other requires special assistance or equipment as a consequence of the other's impairment;

(e) if he or she treats a person who is blind or deaf, or partially blind or deaf, unfavourably because the person possesses, or is accompanied by, a guide dog, or because of any related matter (whether or not it is his or her normal practice to treat unfavourably any person who possesses, or is accompanied by, a dog).

Definition of "discriminate"
29. (1) In this Part—
"discriminate" means—
(a) discriminate on the ground of sex;
(b) discriminate on the ground of sexuality;
(c) discriminate on the ground of marital status;
(d) discriminate on the ground of pregnancy, and "discrimination" has a corresponding meaning.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of sex—
(a) if he or she treats another person unfavourably because of the other's sex;
(b) if he or she treats another unfavourably because the other does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—
(i) the nature of the requirement is such that a substantially higher proportion of persons of the opposite sex complies, or is able to comply, with the requirement than of those of the other's sex;
and
(ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case;
or
(c) if he or she treats another person unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of the other's sex, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that sex.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), for the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of sexuality—
(a) if he or she treats another person unfavourably because of the other's sexuality, or a presumed sexuality;
(b) if he or she treats another person unfavourably because the other does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—
(i) the nature of the requirement is such that a substantially higher proportion of persons of a different sexuality complies, or is able to comply, with the requirement than of those of the other's sexuality;
and
(ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case;
or
(c) if he or she treats another person unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of the other's sexuality, or presumed sexuality, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that sexuality.

(4) Where—
(a) a person discriminates against another on the basis of appearance or dress;
(b) that appearance or dress is characteristic of, or an expression of, that other person's sexuality;
(c) the discrimination is reasonable in all the circumstances, the discrimination will not, for the purposes of Division II, be taken to be discrimination on the ground of sexuality.

(5) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of marital status—

(a) if he or she treats another person unfavourably because of the other's marital status;

(b) if he or she treats another person unfavourably because the other does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—

and

(ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case;

or

(c) if he or she treats another person unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of that marital status, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that marital status.

(6) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates against a pregnant woman—

(a) if he or she treats the woman unfavourably because of her pregnancy;

(b) if he or she treats the woman unfavourably because she does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—

(i) the nature of the requirement is such that a substantially higher proportion of women who are not pregnant complies, or is able to comply, with the requirement than of those who are pregnant;

and

(ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case;

or

(c) if he or she treats the woman unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to pregnant women, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to pregnant women.

Criteria for establishing discrimination on the ground of race

51. For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of race—

(a) if he or she treats another person unfavourably by reason of the other's race;

(b) if he or she treats another person unfavourably because the other does not comply, or is not able to comply, with a particular requirement and—

(i) the nature of the requirement is such that a substantially higher proportion of persons of a different race complies, or is able to comply, with the requirement than of those of the other's race; and

(ii) the requirement is not reasonable in the circumstances of the case;

or

(c) if he or she treats another person unfavourably on the basis of a characteristic that appertains generally to persons of the other's race, or on the basis of a presumed characteristic that is generally imputed to persons of that race.
