9. Section 29 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out subsections (2) and (3) and substituting the following subsections:

(2) The conversion takes place in two stages as follows:

(a) a transitional period, in which the irrigation district remains a government irrigation district, will commence on publication of the notice and will conclude on conversion of the district to a private irrigation district; and

(b) conversion of the district which will occur on the conversion date fixed by the notice or, if the notice so provides, by the Minister by public notice.

(3) On commencement of the transitional period the owners for the time being of the irrigated properties comprising the land specified in the notice constitute a trust in accordance with Part 3 Division 3 as if the land were already a private irrigation district.

(3a) On the conversion date—

(a) the land specified in the notice is constituted as a private irrigation district; and

(b) the water allocations of the irrigated properties comprising the district in force immediately before the conversion will continue until varied by the trust;

(4b) The trust and all subsequent owners of the land will hold it subject to the lease or licence.

(4c) The Minister must request the Registrar-General to note the lease or licence against the instrument of title for the land or, in the case of land that is not under the provisions of the Real Property Act 1886, against the land.

(4d) The remedy of specific performance is available for the enforcement of a lease or licence referred to in subsection (4a).

(c) by inserting the following subsections after subsection (5):

(b) cannot be exercised by the trust during that period.

(8) After the end of the transitional period the trust—

(a) may suspend or remove a person appointed by the Minister to the board of management as though the person had been appointed by the trust;
