(d) another authority or person.

(2) The Governor may, by proclamation, make any transitional or ancillary provision that may be necessary or expedient in view of a vesting under subclause (1).

(3) The vesting of an asset, right or liability under this clause operates by force of this clause and despite the provisions of any other law or instrument.

(4) The Registrar-General or another authority required or authorised under a law of the State to register or record transactions affecting assets, rights or liabilities, or documents relating to such transactions, must, on application under this clause, register or record in an appropriate manner the vesting of an asset, right or liability by instrument under this clause.
(5) Nothing done under this clause—

(a) constitutes a breach of, or default under, an Act or other law; or

(b) constitutes a breach of, or default under, a contract, agreement, understanding or undertaking; or

(c) constitutes a breach of a duty of confidence (whether arising by contract, in equity or by custom or in any other way); or

(d) constitutes a civil or criminal wrong; or

(e) terminates an agreement or obligation or fulfils any condition that allows a person to terminate an agreement or obligation, or gives rise to any other right or remedy; or

(f) releases a surety or other obligee wholly or in part from an obligation.

Interpretative provision

4. (1) The Governor may, by proclamation, direct that a reference in an Act, a statutory instrument, any other kind of instrument or contract, agreement or other document to the South Australian Health Commission will have effect as if it were a reference to a Minister or an administrative unit named in the proclamation.

(2) A proclamation under subsection (1) may effect a transfer of functions or powers.

(3) A proclamation under subsection (1) has effect despite any Act or law to the contrary.

Regulations

5. The regulations may contain other provisions of a saving or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.
