The Parliament of South Australia enacts as follows:

PART 1
PRELIMINARY

Short title
1. This Act may be cited as the Statutes Amendment (Transport Portfolio) Act 2001.

Commencement
2. (1) This Act will come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

(2) Section 7(5) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1915 does not apply to Part 3.

Interpretation
3. A reference in this Act to the principal Act is a reference to the Act referred to in the heading to the Part in which the reference occurs.

PART 2
AMENDMENT OF HARBOURS AND NAVIGATION ACT 1993

Amendment of s. 26—Licences for aquatic activities
4. Section 26(4) of the principal Act is amended by striking out the penalty provision at the foot of that subsection and substituting the following:

Maximum penalty: $750.

Amendment of s. 71—Requirement to submit to alcotest or breath analysis
5. Section 71 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting after subsection (3) the following subsection:

(3a) The regulations may prescribe the manner in which an alcotest or breath analysis is to be conducted and may, for example, require that more than one sample of breath is to be provided for testing or analysis and, in such a case, specify which reading of the apparatus or instrument will be taken to be the result of the alcotest or breath analysis for the purposes of this Division and any other Act.;

(b) by striking out subsection (4) and substituting the following subsection:

(4) It is a defence to a prosecution under subsection (2) that—

(a) the requirement or direction to which the prosecution relates was not lawfully made; or

(b) the person was not allowed the opportunity to comply with the requirement or direction after having been given the prescribed oral advice in relation to—

(i) the consequences of refusing or failing to comply with the requirement or direction; and
(ii) the person's right to request the taking of a blood sample under section 72; or

(c) there was, in the circumstances of the case, good reason for the defendant to refuse or fail to comply with the requirement or direction.

Insertion of s. 72C

6. The following section is inserted after section 72B of the principal Act:

Concentration of alcohol in breath taken to indicate concentration of alcohol in blood

72C. Where a person submits to an alcotest or a breath analysis and the alcotest apparatus or the breath analysing instrument produces a reading in terms of a number of grams of alcohol in 210 litres of the person's breath, the reading will, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to be that number of grams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of the person's blood.

Amendment of s. 73—Evidence

7. Section 73 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out paragraph (b) of subsection (3) and substituting the following paragraph:

(b) the reading produced by the breath analysing instrument.;

(b) by striking out from subsection (5)(b) "that a specified concentration of alcohol was indicated by the breath analysing instrument as being present in the person's blood" and substituting "specifying the reading produced by the breath analysing instrument";

(c) by striking out subparagraph (i) of subsection (5)(bb) and substituting the following subparagraph:

(i) on a day and at a time stated in the certificate, a person named in the certificate submitted to a breath analysis; and;

(d) by striking out paragraph (a) of subsection (5a) and substituting the following paragraph:

(a) that on a day and at a time stated in the certificate, a person named in the certificate submitted to a breath analysis; and.

Amendment of s. 74—Compulsory blood tests of injured persons including water skiers

8. Section 74 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after subsection (16) the following subsection:

(16a) If it is proved by the prosecution in proceedings for an offence against this Division that a concentration of alcohol was present in the defendant's blood at the time at which a sample of blood was taken under this section, it must be conclusively presumed that that concentration of alcohol was present in the defendant's blood throughout the period of two hours immediately preceding the taking of the sample.

Transitional provision

9. An amendment to the principal Act effected by a provision of this Part does not apply in relation to an offence committed before the commencement of that provision.
