ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO ET VICESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1862.

No. 8.

An Act to amend the "District Councils Act, 1858."

[Assented to, 21st October, 1862.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the "District Councils Act, 1858"—Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. No person shall be entitled to vote at any election for Councillor or Auditor, unless his name shall appear as a ratepayer on the last assessment-book for the district.

2. In case, at any nomination of candidates for the office of Councillor or Auditor, more than the necessary number of persons shall be nominated, and a poll shall be demanded, the Chairman of the meeting shall adjourn the proceedings to a day not more than a fortnight from the day of nomination, when the election shall be by ballot, in manner for the time being appointed by law for regulating the elections by ballot of Councillors or Auditors of District Councils.

3. Clauses 146, 147, and 148, of the District Councils Act, 1858, shall no longer be applicable to election meetings.

4. This Act, and, save so far as repealed, the District Councils Act, 1858, shall be read together as one Act.

5. This Act may be cited as the District Councils Act, 1862.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

D. DALY, Governor.
