No. 1148.

[Assented to, December 24th, 1913.]

Be it enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Constitution Further Amendment Act, 1913."

2. This Act is incorporated and shall be read as one Act with "The Constitution Act" and "The Electoral Code, 1908," and all Acts amending those Acts or either of them.

3. The provisions of this Act are arranged as follows:—

PART I.—Preliminary:

PART II.—Constitution of the Parliament:

PART III.—Franchise for the Legislative Council, and Qualification of Electors for the House of Assembly:

PART IV.—Money Bills.

4. In
The Constitution Further Amendment Act.—1913.

PART I.

Interpretation.

4. In this Act—

"Assembly" means the House of Assembly:

"Assembly District" means District for the purpose of electing Members of the House of Assembly:

"Council" means the Legislative Council:

"Council District" means District for the purpose of electing Members of the Legislative Council:

"The State" means the State of South Australia.

Repeal.

5. (1) The Acts mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in that Schedule.

(2) Such repeal shall not—

(a) affect the operation prior to the passing of this Act of any enactment so repealed;

(b) alter, except so far (if at all) as may be necessary for giving effect to this Act, the effect of anything done or suffered, or of the omission of anything before the passing of this Act;

(c) affect any right, duty, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or

(d) affect any legal or other proceedings already commenced, or hereafter to be commenced, with respect to any of such matters or things.

(3) All such matters and things are hereby preserved and continued and declared to be of the same force and effect as if the said enactments were still in force.

PART II.

CONSTITUTION OF THE PARLIAMENT.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Act with which this Act is incorporated, the Parliament of the State shall be constituted in manner provided by this Act.

7. (1) Until the day of the general election of the House of Assembly held next after the passing of this Act, the Legislative Council shall consist, as at present, of eighteen Members.

(2) On the day of the said next general election, sufficient Members shall be elected to the Council to increase the number of the Members thereof to twenty, such Members being elected in accordance with section 9 of this Act; and thereafter the Council shall consist of twenty Members.

8. (1) Until
8. (1) Until the day of the said next general election the House of Assembly shall consist, as at present, of forty Members.

(2) At the said next general election forty-six Members shall be elected to the Assembly, such Members being elected in accordance with subsection (2) of section 10 of this Act; and thereafter the Assembly shall consist of forty-six Members.

9. The State is hereby divided for the purpose of electing Members of the Legislative Council into five Council Districts, which shall respectively—

(a) be distinguished by the names, and

(b) (subject to subsection (1) of section 7 of this Act) return the number of Members, and

(c) comprise the Assembly Districts,

set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act:

Provided that until the day of the general election of the House of Assembly held next after the passing of this Act—

1. Central District No. 1 shall comprise the present Assembly Districts of Adelaide and Port Adelaide, and Central District No. 2 shall comprise the present Assembly District of Torrens; and

11. the other Council Districts shall continue as at the passing of this Act.

10. (1) Until the day of the general election of the House of Assembly held next after the passing of this Act, the State shall, as at present, be divided, for the purpose of electing Members of the Assembly, into twelve electoral Districts, which shall respectively, as at present—

(a) be distinguished by the names, and

(b) return the number of Members, and

(c) comprise the portions of the State,

(2) For the purpose of electing Members of the Assembly at the said next general election, and thereafter for the purpose of electing such Members, the State shall be divided into nineteen electoral Districts, which shall respectively—

(a) be distinguished by the names, and

(b) return the number of Members, and

(c) comprise the portions of the State,

set forth in the Third Schedule to this Act.

11. Every
11. Every Assembly District shall be also an electoral Division of the Council District within which it is comprised.

Adjustments and Amendments consequent on Alterations of the Constitution.

12. (1) Within one month from the coming into operation of this Act, the Members of the Council who have been elected to represent the Central District (as constituted before the passing of this Act) shall decide amongst themselves the question which three of them shall represent Central District No. 1, and shall, by writing signed by all of them, certify their decision to the President of the Council.

(2) If subsection (1) of this section is not fully complied with within the said period of one month, the President shall decide the said question by lot.

(3) Notice of the decision of the said Members or of the President (as the case may be) shall be published by the President in the Government Gazette.

(4) The notice so published shall be conclusive evidence as to the matters therein stated, and as to the validity thereof.

(5) From the date of the publication of the notice under subsection (3) of this section, the three Members therein specified shall be Members representing Central District No. 1 in the Council, and the other three Members of the Council who have been elected to represent the Central District (as constituted before the passing of this Act) shall be Members representing Central District No. 2 in the Council.

13. Section 11 of "The Constitution Amendment Act, 1908," is hereby amended by substituting the words "two for any Council District" for the words "three for the Central District and two for each of the other Districts" in the third and fourth lines thereof.

14. Section 12 of "The Constitution Amendment Act, 1908," is amended by inserting at the end of paragraph 1 thereof the following words, namely:

and if, in accordance with the last preceding section, more Members than one are to retire and there are not two who have represented such District for such longest time, then the two Members to retire shall be the one who has represented such District for the longest time, calculated as aforesaid, and the Member or one of the Members who has or have represented such District for the next longest time, calculated as aforesaid:

15. In
15. In calculating, for the purposes of sections 10, 11, and 12 of "The Constitution Amendment Act, 1908," the time during which a Member of the Council, who, under section 12 of this Act, becomes a Member representing Central District No. 1 or Central District No. 2, has occupied his seat, or has represented the District, the time during which he has represented the Central District (as constituted before the passing of this Act) since he was last elected shall be added to the time during which he has represented Central District No. 1 or Central District No. 2, as the case may be.

16. (1) For the purposes of the elections of Members of the Council held on the occasion of the general election of the House of Assembly held next after the passing of this Act, and for the purposes of the said general election, the Returning Officer for the State shall—

(a) from the rolls which but for this section would then be in force, prepare new electoral rolls for the Council and Assembly Districts newly created, and

(b) make such alterations in the electoral rolls for the Districts, the boundaries of which are altered by this Act, as the circumstances of each case require:

Provided that in all cases the registration of electors shall be preserved as of the date of their respective registrations in force at the time when such alterations are made.

(2) The Returning Officer for the State may, as occasion may require, make such alterations in the Second Schedule to "The Electoral Code, 1908," as appear to him to be necessary to carry this Act into effect; and upon such alterations being approved by the Governor and published in the Government Gazette, the said Schedule shall be deemed to be amended by this Act in accordance with such alterations, and such alterations shall be as valid as if hereby enacted.

PART III.
FRANCHISE FOR THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, AND QUALIFICATION OF ELECTORS FOR THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

17. (1) Subject to sections 18 and 19 of this Act, the following persons, and no others, shall be entitled to vote at the election of Members of the Legislative Council, namely:

1. any person who has a freehold estate in possession, either legal or equitable, in any land situate within the State, which estate is of the clear value of at least Fifty Pounds above all charges and incumbrances affecting the same;

2. any...
11. any person who has a leasehold estate in possession, in any land situate within the State, which estate is of the clear annual value of at least Twenty Pounds: Provided that the lease thereof—

(a) has been registered in the Lands Titles Registration Office or the General Registry Office for the registration of deeds, and

(b) shall, when granted, have been for a term of not less than three years, or contains a clause authorising the lessee to become the purchaser of the land thereby demised;

111. any person who is registered, in the Lands Titles Registration Office or the General Registry Office for the registration of deeds, as the proprietor of a lease from the Crown of land situate within the State, upon which land there are improvements to the value of at least Fifty Pounds, which improvements are the property of such person; and

111. any person who is an inhabitant occupier, as owner or tenant, of any dwelling-house: Provided that no person shall be entitled to vote by reason of being a joint occupier of any dwelling-house:

Provided that in every case such person is of the age of twenty-one years at least, is a British subject, and is an inhabitant of the State, and has resided in the State at least six months prior to the registration of his electoral claim.

(2) When a person inhabits any dwelling-house by virtue of any office, service, or employment, and the dwelling-house is not inhabited by any person under whom the first-mentioned person serves in such office, service, or employment, such first-mentioned person shall be deemed, for the purposes of subdivision iv. of subsection (1) hereof to be an inhabitant occupier of such dwelling-house as a tenant.

(3) A person shall not be deemed to be an inhabitant occupier of a dwelling-house unless he, or some member of his family, ordinarily sleeps and has his meals therein; and he shall not necessarily be deemed to be an inhabitant occupier thereof by reason only of the fact that he, or some member of his family, ordinarily sleeps and has his meals therein.

(4) In this section the term "dwelling-house" means any structure of a permanent character, being a fixture to the soil, which is ordinarily capable of being used for human habitation and includes part of a building when that part is separately occupied as a dwelling: Provided that when a dwelling-house is only part of a building and any other part thereof is in the occupation as a dwelling of some person other than the occupier of the first-mentioned part, such first-mentioned part shall not be a dwelling-house within the meaning of this section, unless it is structurally severed.
severed from such other part of the building, and there is no direct means of access between such parts.

(5) For the purposes of this section the following persons only shall be deemed to be members of a family:—husband, wife, father, mother, grand-father, grand-mother, step-father, step-mother, son, daughter, grand-son, grand-daughter, step-son, step-daughter, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister.

(6) In this section the term "improvements" means substantial and permanent improvements, consisting of buildings, fencing, dams, tanks, wells, or reservoirs, or clearing, or drainage, or irrigation works.

18. Notwithstanding anything in section 17 of this Act, no person shall be entitled to vote at an election for a Member or Members of the Legislative Council unless such person—

(a) is at the time of the election registered on the electoral roll for the Council District in which such election is held, and

(b) has been so registered for a period of at least one month immediately before the day of the issue of the writ for such election.

19. (1) Sections 17 and 18 of this Act shall not apply to any election held before a date to be fixed by the Governor by proclamation, which proclamation shall be published in the Government Gazette.

(2) For the purposes of any election held before the date so fixed, and of the registration and rolls of electors to vote at such an election, the enactments repealed by this Act shall be deemed to be still in force.

(3) For the purposes of elections to be held on or after the date so fixed, electors to vote for Members of the Council shall, as well before as on and after that date, be registered in accordance with the provisions of section 17 of this Act, and not otherwise.

(4) The Returning Officer of the State shall make such arrangements for keeping separate records of registrations as he deems necessary for giving effect to the provisions of this section.

20. Section 4 of "The Electoral Laws Amendment Act, 1904," is amended by substituting the following provision for subsection (1) thereof, namely:—

(1) Subject to the disqualifications set out in subsection (2) hereof, every person who—

(a) is of the age of twenty-one years at least, and

(b) is a British subject, and

(c) is
PART III.

The Constitution Further Amendment Act.—1913.

(c) is an inhabitant of the State, and has resided in the State at least six months prior to the registration of his electoral claim, shall be entitled to vote at an election of Members of the House of Assembly: Provided that he—

I. is at the time of the election registered on the electoral roll for the Assembly District in which such election is held, and

II. has been so registered for a period of at least one month immediately before the day of the issue of the writ for such election.

PART IV.

MONEY BILLS.

21. (1) In this Part, the expressions “revenue,” “public money,” “taxation,” and “loan” respectively do not include any revenue, money, taxation, or loan raised by local authorities or bodies for local purposes.

(2) For the purposes of this Part a Bill, or a clause of a Bill, shall not be taken to appropriate revenue or public money, or to deal with taxation, by reason only of its containing provisions for the imposition or appropriation of fines or other pecuniary penalties, or for the demand or payment or appropriation of fees for licences or fees for services under the proposed Act.

(3) For the purposes of this Part a Bill, or a clause of a Bill, shall be taken to deal with taxation if it provides for the imposition, repeal, remission, alteration, or regulation of taxation.

(4) In this Part—

“Appropriation Bill” means a Bill for appropriating revenue or other public money:

“Money Bill” means a Bill for appropriating revenue or other public money, or for dealing with taxation, or for raising or guaranteeing any loan, or for providing for the repayment of any loan:

“Money clause” means a clause of a Bill, which clause appropriates revenue or other public money, or deals with taxation, or provides for raising or guaranteeing any loan or for the repayment of any loan:

“Previously
"Previously authorised purpose" means—

(a) a purpose which has been previously authorised by Act of Parliament or by resolution passed by both Houses of Parliament; or

(b) a purpose for which any provision has been made in the votes of the Committee of Supply whereon an Appropriation Bill previously passed was founded.

22. Section 1 of the "Constitution Act" is amended by striking out the words "Provided that all Bills for appropriating any part of the revenue of the said Province, or for imposing, altering, or repealing any rate, tax, duty, or impost, shall originate in the House of Assembly," and in lieu thereof it is enacted as provided by section 23 of this Act.

23. A Money Bill, or a money clause, shall originate only in the House of Assembly.

24. (1) The Legislative Council may not amend any money clause.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, the Council may return to the House of Assembly any Bill containing a money clause with a suggestion to omit or amend such clause or to insert additional money clauses, or may send to the Assembly a Bill containing suggested money clauses requesting, by message, that effect be given to the suggestion; and the Assembly may, if it thinks fit, make any omission or amendment, or insertion so suggested, with or without modifications.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section applies to a money clause contained in an Appropriation Bill only when such clause contains some provision appropriating revenue or other public money for some purpose other than a previously authorised purpose or dealing with some matter other than the appropriation of revenue or other public money.

(4) When, under subsection (2) of this section, the Council sends to the Assembly a Bill containing suggested money clauses, such clauses shall be printed in erased type, and shall not be deemed to form part of the Bill.

25. A Bill for appropriating revenue or other public money for any previously authorised purpose shall not contain any provision appropriating revenue or other public money for any purpose other than a previously authorised purpose.

26. Except as provided by this Part the Legislative Council shall have equal power with the House of Assembly in respect of all Bills.

27. No
27. No infringement or non-observance of any provision of this Part shall be held to affect the validity of any Act assented to by the Governor.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

DAY H. BOSANQUET, Governor.
