ANNO QUARTO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1913.

No. 1119.

An Act to further amend “The Impounding Act of 1858.”

[Assented to, November 20th, 1913.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited alone as “The Impounding Act Amendment Act, 1913.”

   (2) “The Impounding Act of 1858” (hereinafter called “the principal Act”), “The Impounding Act Amendment Act, 1895,” and this Act may be cited together as “The Impounding Acts, 1858 to 1913.”

2. This Act is incorporated with the other Acts mentioned in section 1, and those Acts and this Act shall be read as one Act.

3. In this Act, and in the principal Act as amended by this Act, the expression “Angora goat” means full-bred Angora goat.

4. From the passing of this Act section 22 of the principal Act shall not apply to any Angora goat.

5. Schedule A to the principal Act is amended—

   i. by inserting “(other than an Angora goat)” after the word “goat”:

   ii. by inserting the words “and for every Angora goat” after the word “lamb.”

6. (1) Any
Seizure of goats trespassing on Crown lands.

6. (1) Any goat, not being an Angora goat, unlawfully trespassing upon Crown lands, or lands reserved for or dedicated to the public use, may be seized and impounded by a Crown lands ranger, or by any person authorised in that behalf by the Commissioner or by a Crown lands ranger, and if there is no public pound within five miles of the place where it is seized it may be impounded elsewhere.

(2) If the owner of any goat so seized does not within seven clear days after the seizing thereof claim it and pay the reasonable expenses of keeping and maintaining it, such goat may, without any order or authority other than this Act, be offered for sale by auction at any time and place by a Crown lands ranger, or any person authorised in that behalf by a Crown lands ranger, but in other respects in the same manner as if it had been impounded under the principal Act, and the money arising from the sale thereof (if sold) shall be subject to the same provisions as are by that Act made applicable to the money arising from the sale of cattle impounded for damage by trespass.

(3) If at an auction any goat so seized is not sold, it may be destroyed by a Crown lands ranger, or any person authorised in that behalf by a Crown lands ranger, without compensation to the owner.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be held to in any way derogate from the effect of section 215 of "The Crown Lands Act, 1903."

7. Section 22 of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out the words "or rabbits" wherever they occur and inserting the word "or" before the word "poultry" wherever it occurs.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

DAY H. BOSANQUET, Governor.
