An Act to further amend "The Pinnaroo Railway Act."

[Assented to, November 19th, 1914.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited alone as "The Pinnaroo Railway Act Further Amendment Act, 1914."

(2) "The Pinnaroo Railway Act," "The Pinnaroo Railway Act Amendment Acts, 1907 and 1908," and this Act, may be cited together as "The Pinnaroo Railway Acts, 1903 to 1914."

2. This Act is incorporated with the other Acts mentioned in section 1 hereof, and those Acts and this Act shall be read as one Act.

3. (1) The District Council or Councils within whose Districts are situated any lands which have been reserved under section 18 of "The Pinnaroo Railway Act" as breakwinds (hereinafter referred to as "breakwind reserves") may apply in writing to the Commissioner of Crown Lands to declare parts of such breakwind reserves to be public roads, and to close roads or parts of roads abutting on such breakwind reserves.

(2) Thereupon
The Pinnaroo Railway Act Further Amendment Act.—1914.

(2) Thereupon the Commissioner of Crown Lands may, by notice published in the Government Gazette, declare—

i. that the parts defined in such notice of such breakwind reserves shall, from the date specified in such notice, be public roads, and

ii. that, from the same date, the roads or parts of roads defined in such notice, abutting on such breakwind reserves, shall be closed as roads and shall be included in such breakwind reserves.

(3) From the date so specified—

i. the parts of breakwind reserves so declared to be public roads shall, notwithstanding the provisions of the said section 13, be public roads for all purposes, and

ii. the roads or parts of roads so declared to be closed shall cease to be roads or parts thereof, and shall for all purposes be parts of the breakwind reserves upon which they respectively abut as if they had been included therein by reservation under the said section 13, and all the provisions of that section as to any person found cutting or removing timber, scrub, or undergrowth shall apply accordingly.

(4) The powers conferred by this section may be exercised from time to time as the said Commissioner deems convenient.

4. From the time when any road, or part of a road, becomes part of a breakwind reserve pursuant to this Act, the District Council within whose District it is situate shall preserve and protect from destruction or injury all timber and other trees growing thereon, and shall take all such steps as may be necessary to prevent traffic along or across such part of such breakwind reserve.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

H. L. GALWAY, Governor.
