ANNO SEPTIMO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1916.

************************************************************************************************************

No. 1266.

An Act to provide for the Construction of a Railway from near Palmer to Monarto, and for other purposes.

[Assented to, November 16th, 1916.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the “Palmer to Monarto Railway Act, 1916.”

2. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule, so far as they are severally applicable, but with the exceptions stated in the Schedule, are incorporated with this Act.

3. (1) The South Australian Railways Commissioner (hereinafter called “the Commissioner”) may—

   1. construct a railway (hereinafter called “the said railway”) to Monarto from the terminus at or near Palmer of the railway from a point at or near Palmer to Sedan authorised by the Mount Pleasant, Sedan, and Truro Railways Act, 1914, as the said railway is delineated in the plan deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General, in Adelaide, signed “J. C. B. Moncrieff, Chief Engineer for Railways,” and dated the twenty-sixth day of October, nineteen hundred and sixteen, or as the said railway is delineated in any plans so deposited after the passing of this Act pursuant to any law for the time being in force as to the deposit of such plans;

   2. construct
No. 32 of 1876.

How work to be carried out.

11. construct all proper works and conveniences connected with, or for the purposes of, the said railway or any part thereof, or of the said railway and any other railway or railways; and

111. maintain the said railway and all works and conveniences hereinbefore mentioned.

(2) In case the Houses of Parliament are not sitting at the time when any plans and books of reference as to the railway to be constructed under the authority of this Act are deposited in the office of the Surveyor-General under section 9 of the Railways Clauses Act, 1876, the Commissioner may make deviations under the said section before causing copies of such plans and books of reference to be laid before Parliament, but such copies shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the next sittings of such Houses respectively.

5. All payments in respect of any contract entered into by the Commissioner for the construction of the railway or any section thereof shall be made in cash and not by Inscribed Stock, Treasury Bills, or any other form of Government security.

6. The gauge of the said railway shall be five feet three inches, and the rails to be used in the construction thereof shall be of iron or steel, and of the weight of not less than sixty pounds to the yard.

7. The Commissioner may demand for the use of the said railway, and in respect thereof, and for the carriage of goods, stock, minerals, mails, parcels, and passengers thereon, and for the loading and unloading of goods, minerals, mails, and stock, such fares, tolls, charges, and rates as are from time to time fixed by the Commissioner, missioner, in manner prescribed by any Act or Acts under which the Commissioner may fix fares, tolls, charges, and rates in respect of the railways under his control.

8. All fares, tolls, rents, dues, charges, rates, and sums of money which are received under authority of this Act shall be paid, in such manner as is prescribed by the Governor, to the Treasurer of the said State for the public purposes of the said State.

9. When any land is purchased or taken by the Commissioner for the purposes of this Act, or the Commissioner exercises, with respect to any land and for such purposes, the powers conferred by any of the Acts incorporated with this Act, or any land is alleged to be injuriously affected by the constructing of the said railway or any works or conveniences authorised by this Act, if the amount of compensation to be paid to any owner of such land is not determined by agreement in writing signed by or on behalf of such owner and the Commissioner, within twenty-one days after the Commissioner has given notice to such owner, as required by section 18 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, that he requires to purchase or take such land, or that he desires to have the compensation for the exercise of the said powers or for the injurious affection fixed, as the case may be, the amount of compensation shall be determined by arbitration in the following manner:

1. The Commissioner may give notice in writing to such owner of his intention to have the compensation settled by arbitration, and may, by the same or a subsequent notice in writing to such owner, nominate and appoint an arbitrator to act in the reference on behalf of the Commissioner:

11. Such owner may, within twenty-one days after the giving of such notice appointing an arbitrator, give notice in writing to the Commissioner agreeing that such arbitrator shall be sole arbitrator, or nominating and appointing another arbitrator to act in the reference on behalf of such owner:

111. Each such notice nominating and appointing an arbitrator, or agreeing to the appointment of a sole arbitrator, shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same is given; and after the giving of any such notice neither party shall have power to revoke the appointment thereby made or such submission without the consent in writing of the other party, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation:

1v. Unless such owner, within twenty-one days after the giving by the Commissioner as aforesaid of notice nominating and appointing an arbitrator, gives notice to the Commissioner, as provided by paragraph 11. hereof, agreeing that such arbitrator shall be sole arbitrator or nominating and appointing appointing another arbitrator, the Commissioner may appoint the arbitrator nominated and appointed by him to act on behalf of both parties; and such arbitrator shall proceed to hear and determine the matter and shall give his award determining the price and compensation (if any) to be paid:

v. All the provisions of sections 26 to 35 inclusive, of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply with respect to the arbitration and the determination of the compensation:

vi. No notice, appointment, or award made under this section shall be set aside or be invalid for irregularity or error in matter of form:

vii. Every award under this section of arbitrators, or of a single arbitrator (in a case where it is agreed, as mentioned in paragraph II. hereof, that an arbitrator shall be the sole arbitrator, or where a single arbitrator is empowered by this section to give an award), or of an umpire, shall be final: Provided always that where an arbitrator or umpire has misconducted himself, the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof may remove him, and that where an arbitrator has misconducted himself, or an arbitration or award has been improperly procured, the said Court or a Judge thereof may set the award aside:

viii. A submission to arbitration under this section shall have the same effect as if it had been made an order of the Supreme Court; and an award under this section may, by leave of the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, be enforced in the same manner as a judgment or order of the said Court to the same effect:

ix. In this section—

(a) the word "owner" includes, with respect to any land, any person having any estate or interest (legal or equitable) in the land, or any easement, right, power, or privilege in, under, over, affecting, or in connection with the land, or by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act enabled to sell and convey, transfer, release, assign, or otherwise assure such estate, interest, easement, right, power, or privilege; and

(b) the word "land" includes any estate or interest (legal or equitable) in land, and any easement, right, or privilege in, under, over, affecting, or in connection with land.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

H. L. GALWAY, Governor.
