53. If any officer employed, otherwise than temporarily, in the Public Service is guilty of a breach of any provision of this Act, or

1. disobeys, disregards, or makes wilful default in carrying out any lawful order made or given by any person having authority to give such order, or by word or conduct displays insubordination; or

11. is
II. is negligent, careless, or indolent in the discharge of his duties; or

III. is inefficient or incompetent for the discharge of his duties, his inefficiency or incompetency arising from causes within his own control; or

IV. uses intoxicating beverages or drugs to excess; or

V. conducts himself in a disgraceful, improper, or unbecoming manner either in the discharge of his duties or in public; or

VI. otherwise than in the discharge of his duties, directly or indirectly discloses information acquired in the course of his duties, except by the direction or with the permission of the Minister; or

VII. without the permission of the Minister, makes any communication or contribution, directly or indirectly, and whether anonymously or otherwise, to any newspaper or any publication of a like nature on any matter affecting the Public Service or any Department, or the business or the officers of the Public Service or of any Department, or on his own office or his own acts or duties as an officer, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to such punishment as may be determined upon under section 54.

54. If any officer (not being a Permanent Head) is charged with the commission of any such offence as mentioned in section 53, he may be dealt with in the following manner:—

(a) He may be temporarily suspended by the Permanent Head, or, in emergent cases, by any officer prescribed as having power to suspend officers in the office or place in which such officer is employed. If he is suspended otherwise than by the Permanent Head, the suspension shall be reported forthwith to the Permanent Head.

(b) The Permanent Head, if satisfied that the charges are not of such a serious nature as to require a suspension, may permit the officer to continue in the performance of his duties pending the determination of the charges.

(c) The Permanent Head or other suspending officer shall forthwith after suspension furnish the suspended officer with a statement in writing of the charges on which he is suspended, and require him forthwith to state in writing whether he admits or denies the truth of the charges, or any of them, and to give any explanation in writing which he desires to furnish as to such charges, or any of them, for consideration.

(d) After
(d) After consideration of the charges and the explanation in writing (if any) furnished by the suspended officer, and after such (if any) further investigation as he deems necessary, the Permanent Head—

I. if he is of opinion that the alleged offences have not been committed, may remove the suspension;

II. if he is of opinion that the alleged offences, or any of them, have or has been committed, but are or is not of a serious nature, may reprimand or caution the suspended officer and remove the suspension:

III. if he is of opinion that the alleged offences, or any of them, have or has been committed and are or is of so serious a nature that an investigation thereof should be made by a Board of Inquiry, may forthwith refer the charges, or such charge, to a Board of Inquiry consisting of—

(1) a Judge of the Supreme Court, or a Special Magistrate, approved by the Governor, who shall be the Chairman;

(2) a member appointed by the Commissioner (not being a member of the legal profession), who shall be an officer of the Public Service, but not of the Department in which the suspended officer is employed; and

(3) an officer of the Division to which the suspended officer belongs, who shall be elected for the purpose of the inquiry by the officers of such Division in the prescribed manner.

(e) If the suspended officer is dissatisfied with the action of the Permanent Head he may, within seven days after such action has been taken, appeal in writing to the Commissioner stating the grounds of his dissatisfaction, and the Commissioner shall thereupon enquire into and consider the appeal, and the grounds thereof, and the charges, and may give such decision as he deems just concerning the charges, and the decision of the Commissioner shall be final.

(f) If any of the charges is admitted, or is found by the Board of Inquiry to be proved, the Minister may—

I. deprive the suspended officer of his annual or other leave of absence during, or in respect of, a specified period, or

II. according to the gravity of the offence, reduce such officer to a lower class or grade and salary or other remuneration, or transfer him to some other office in the Department, or

III. dismiss
31 dismiss such officer from the Public Service or require him to resign within a specified time (in which case he may be dismissed by the Minister unless he so resigns): Provided that, in the case of any office as to which it is so prescribed by regulation, the power to dismiss or to call upon an officer to resign shall not be exercised except with the previous approval of the Governor; and the suspended officer, however dealt with, under this subdivision, shall not, unless otherwise ordered by the Governor, be entitled to any salary or wages in respect of the time of his suspension.

(g) If none of the charges is admitted, and the Board of Inquiry report that they find none of them to be proved, the suspension shall be removed by the Minister upon his being supplied with the Board's report.

55. When the Permanent Head of a Department is charged with any of the offences mentioned in section 53 the Minister may suspend him and, in such case, the provisions of paragraphs (c) to (g) inclusive of section 54, mutatis mutandis, shall apply, the word “Minister” being read instead of the words “Permanent Head” wherever they occur in those paragraphs, and the word “Governor” being read instead of the word “Minister” wherever it so occurs.

56. The following provisions shall apply to and in respect of inquiries by the Commissioner under section 54 or 55:

(a) The officer against whom a charge is made may, with the approval in writing of the Minister, be represented upon the hearing by the Commissioner by counsel or agent, who may examine witnesses and address the Commissioner on his behalf.

(b) The Commissioner shall inquire as to the truth of the charges without regard to technicalities or legal forms, and shall direct himself by the best evidence he can procure, or that is laid before him, whether it is such evidence or is tendered in such manner, as the law would require or admit in other cases, or not.

(c) The inquiry shall, if the Commissioner so directs, be held in private.

(d) If the Commissioner finds that a charge is not proved, he may recommend that the reasonable expenses, or any part thereof, incurred by the officer in meeting such charge, or if he has been suspended any loss of salary incurred by him in consequence of such suspension (the amount recommended being specified in the recommendation), be paid by the Government. Every such recommendation shall be considered by the Governor.

63. Every officer admitted to the Public Service before the commencement of this Act who is not a natural-born or naturalised subject of His Majesty shall forthwith after the commencement of this Act, or as soon as he is qualified so to do, apply for and obtain a certificate of naturalisation under the laws of the United Kingdom or of the Commonwealth.

64. (1) Any officer affected by any report or recommendation made by the Commissioner under this Act, as to his classification or grading, or the classification of the work performed by or assigned to him, may, in such manner and within such time as are prescribed, apply to the Commissioner to reconsider the matter: Provided that the application is made before the report or recommendation is dealt with by the Governor.

(2) The Commissioner shall hear and determine all such applications, provided they are made in accordance with this Act.

65. (1) The Board or the Commissioner, or any person to whom any power or function of the Commissioner is delegated under this Act, may at any time, by writing signed by them or him, summon any person whose evidence appears to be material for the purpose of any application, inquiry, or investigation before them or him under this Act, to appear at the time and place specified in the summons and produce any official or public or other books, documents, or writings in his custody or under his control which may be material to such application, inquiry, or investigation.

(2) The Board or any member thereof, and the Commissioner or any person to whom any power or function of the Commissioner is delegated as aforesaid, may examine any witness upon oath or otherwise touching the matter of any such application, inquiry, or investigation.

(3) If,
(3) If, without reasonable cause, any person summoned as aforesaid, after being paid or tendered the prescribed allowance for expenses—

(a) fails to appear as required by the summons, or

(b) refuses to be sworn or to answer any question put to him by the Board or any member thereof, or the Commissioner or any person to whom any power or function of the Commissioner is delegated as aforesaid, or

(c) fails to produce any book, document, or writing pursuant to such summons, he shall be liable to pay a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, which shall be recoverable before any Special Magistrate or two Justices of the Peace: Provided that no person shall be compelled to answer any question the answer to which would tend to incriminate him.

66. (1) No action or suit shall be brought or maintained against any person or body for any misfeasance or non-feasance in connection with the carrying out, or attempted carrying out, of any provision of this Act.

(2) Except so far as expressly provided by this Act, no action, suit, or other proceeding shall lie, nor shall any costs be payable, in respect of any proceeding before the Board or any member thereof, or before the Commissioner or any person to whom any power or function of the Commissioner is delegated under this Act.

67. (1) The Minister of any Department may, at such times as he deems convenient, grant to any officer in such Department who has been not less than one year continuously in the Public Service, leave of absence for recreation not exceeding two weeks or, in the case of an officer whose ordinary duties require him to work on more than six days in the week, three weeks, during any one financial year: Provided that in the event of any officer being unable through press of official duties to take his annual leave of absence or part thereof during any financial year, the Minister may permit such leave of absence to accumulate to an extent not exceeding four weeks.

(2) The Minister may also, in case of illness or other pressing necessity, grant to any officer in his Department additional leave, not exceeding one month continuously, on such terms as he thinks fit.

68. (1) The Governor may grant to any officer in the Public Service of at least ten years’ continuous service leave of absence not exceeding eight months on half salary, or, at the option of the officer, not exceeding four months on full salary; or, if of twenty years’ continuous service, eight months’ leave of absence on full salary: Provided that—

1. in the case of an officer to whom, before the twenty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-four (being the date of the passing of the Civil Service Amendment Act
Public Service Act.—1916.

Act of 1894, leave of absence could not be granted under section 3 of the Civil Service Amendment Act, 1881, no service before the said twenty-first day of December shall be taken into account for the purposes of this section:

1. in the case of an officer who entered the Public Service, or became an employé of the Government of the State, after the ninth day of December, nineteen hundred and five (being the date of the passing of the Civil Service Further Amendment Act, 1905), the length of the leave of absence which may be granted under this section shall be reduced by one-half thereof.

2. The Governor may, in case of illness or other pressing necessity, grant such extension as he thinks fit of the leave of absence granted under this section, on such terms as he thinks fit.

3. Notwithstanding section 4 or any other provision of the South Australian Railways Commissioners Act, 1887—

(a) the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) hereof, except the provisos to subsection (1), shall apply to all persons in the service of the South Australian Railways holding the offices mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act, and also to all persons holding such (if any) other offices in the said service, and to such (if any) other persons in the said service, as are ordered by the Governor in Council to be within the application of this subdivision of this subsection;

(b) the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) hereof, including the provisos to subsection (1), shall apply to all other persons in the service of the South Australian Railways.

4. The power to make regulations, conferred by section 29 of the South Australian Railways Commissioners Act, 1887, shall not extend to regulations as to the granting to employés of such leave of absence as is provided for by this section.

5. For the purposes of this section, all persons in the employ of the Government of the State (except any officers or class of officers, or the officers of any Department, to whom or to which it is provided by any Act that this Act, or the Acts hereby repealed, shall not apply) shall be deemed to be officers in the Public Service.

6. For the purposes of this section, the length of service of an officer shall be computed from the commencement of his continuous service or probationary appointment, and service shall be deemed "continuous" notwithstanding absence on any leave with or without pay.

7. If any person to whom there is power to grant leave of absence under this section dies—

(a) before the commencement or during the currency of any leave so granted, or

(b) before such leave has been granted, the Governor may, in respect of the period of the leave so granted or the unexpired portion thereof, or in respect of the period of the leave which might have been granted (according to the circumstances of the case), pay to the dependants (if any) of such person the amounts of salary which would have been payable to such person himself if he had survived.

Any question as to—

1. whether there are any dependants in any particular case, or who are the dependants,

2. what dependant or dependants shall be entitled to the benefit of payments made under this subsection, and in what proportions if more than one dependant, shall be settled by the Governor, as he deems proper.

(2) When, under the Holidays Act, 1910, or this Act, the services of any officer are required by the Minister on any public holiday or departmental holiday, such officer shall be entitled to another day in lieu thereof.

70. (1) Every officer shall retire on attaining the age of seventy years: Provided that—

1. the Governor may, from time to time, direct that any officer competent and willing to do so shall remain in the Public Service after attaining the age of seventy years for any period not exceeding, in any one direction hereunder, more than twelve months:

2. if before the retirement of any officer there is power to grant him leave of absence under section 68 (except sick leave), or the whole or any portion of the period of such leave already granted to him has not expired, he shall, for the purposes only of that section, be deemed to be still in the Public Service; but his successor may, nevertheless, be appointed. (2) Notwithstanding
(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any Act as to the tenure of office of any officers appointed thereunder this section shall apply to all persons in the employ of the Government of the State, except the Judges of the Supreme Court, the Commissioner of Insolvency, the President of the Industrial Court, and the Clerks of the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly.

(2) Compliance with subsection (1) of this section shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice, order, or communication on such officer.

(3) In case any such notice, order, or communication relates to any charge made against an officer, then, if within a time specified in such notice, order, or communication no answer is received by the authority asking whether the officer admits the truth of such charge, he shall be deemed to deny the truth of such charge, and such charge may be inquired into and dealt with in the absence of such officer.

73. No officer shall be deemed to be entitled to any compensation by reason of any reduction of his salary or other remuneration, or any alteration of the limits of salary of his class or grade, or any alteration in the scale of his allowances or expenses, made by or under this Act, or any Act amending this Act, or by regulation.

74. (1) Except pursuant to such arrangement as authorised by section 43 or 44, or with the express permission of the Minister, which permission may at any time be withdrawn, no officer shall—
