No. 1325.

An Act to further amend the Act No. 862 of 1904, and to amend the Police Pensions Act, 1916, so as to extend the provisions of the said Acts to certain Officers in the Licensing Court Department of the Public Service who were formerly Members of the Police Force.

[Assented to, October 10th, 1918.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the “Police Pensions Act Amendment Act, 1918.”

   (2) The Police Pensions Act, 1916 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Act”), and this Act may be cited together as the “Police Pensions Acts, 1916 and 1918.”

2. This Act is incorporated with the principal Act, and that Act and this Act shall be read as one Act.

3. (1) Whereas certain members of the Police Force were, shortly before the passing of the principal Act, appointed by the Governor to offices in the Licensing Court Department of the Public Service and by reason of such appointments ceased to be members of the Police Force: And whereas it was a condition of the acceptance by the said persons of such appointments that all benefits and privileges which such persons might have enjoyed if they had continued to be,
be members of the Police Force, should be secured to them: It is hereby enacted that notwithstanding such appointments and notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Act or in the Police Fund Distribution Act, 1904, such persons shall, for all the purposes of the said Acts, be deemed to have continued to be members of the Police Force, and shall be deemed to be members of the said Force so long as they hold any office in the Public Service or are members of the said Force; and the said Acts shall be read and construed accordingly.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have been passed and to have come into operation on the day of the passing of the principal Act.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

H. L. GALWAY, Governor.
