ANNO DECIMO

GEORGII V REGIS.

A.D. 1919.

********************************************************************

No. 1393.

An Act to amend the Succession Duties (Killed in War) Act, 1915.

[Assented to, November 20th, 1919.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited alone as the "Succession Duties (Killed in War) Act Amendment Act, 1919."

(2) The Succession Duties (Killed in War) Act, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), and this Act may be cited together as the "Succession Duties (Killed in War) Acts, 1915 and 1919."

2. This Act is incorporated with the principal Act, and that Act and this Act shall be read as one Act.

3. Section 4 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by substituting the word "shall" for the passage "may, if he thinks fit," in the fifth line of subsection (1) thereof,

(b) by inserting after the word "ancestor" in the ninth line thereof the words "or any sister or brother, or the intended wife or husband", and

(c) by striking out subsection (2) thereof and substituting in lieu thereof the following subsections:—

(2) Where any person claims any remission or repayment of succession duty under this section on the ground that that he or she is the intended husband or wife of the deceased person, the claim shall not be allowed unless the claimant proves to the satisfaction of the Registrar that he or she was at the time of the death of the deceased person engaged to be married to her or him.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section, no remission or repayment of duty shall be made under this section in favor of any successor who is not domiciled in the Commonwealth of Australia.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

H. L. GALWAY, Governor.
