No. 1627.

An Act to amend the Employees Registry Offices Act, 1915.

[Assented to, December 11th, 1924.]

Be it Enacted by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Employees Registry Offices Act Amendment Act, 1924."

(2) The Employees Registry Offices Act, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), and this Act may be cited together as the "Employees Registry Offices Acts, 1915 and 1924."

2. Section 14 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:

(5) Any sum paid by any person, directly or indirectly, to any licensee for or on account of advertising for the hiring of any employee or for any other purpose connected with such hiring shall be deemed to be a sum paid in respect of the hiring of an employee.

3. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 16 thereof the following new section:

16A. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Chief Inspector and for any reason which the Minister thinks fit, cancel any licence.

(2) Before
(2) Before cancelling any licence the Minister shall—

(a) give to the licensee, the holder of the licence in question, by post by registered letter addressed to the premises in respect of which the licence was issued, notice of the recommendation of the Chief Inspector; and

(b) hold full inquiry into the matter of the recommendation of the Chief Inspector and afford the licensee an opportunity of giving an explanation personally or in writing.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

TOM BRIDGES, Governor.
