9. The principal Act is amended by inserting therein after Part XIV thereof the following new Part:—

PART XIV A.

POWERS OF COUNCIL TO SELL LAND FOR NON-PAYMENT OF RATES.

247 A. (1) In any case in which rates (whether becoming due before or after the passing of the District Councils Act Amendment Act, 1931), in respect of any land being ratable property (other than land of or belonging to the Crown) are in arrear for not less than five years and the land is and has been vacant and unoccupied for more than five years, the Council shall by virtue of this Act, have the following powers:—

i. Power to sell the said land:

ii. Power to transfer or convey the land sold.

(2) The said power of sale shall include—

(a) a power to sell the land or any part thereof either together or in lots by public auction or by private contract subject to such terms and conditions with respect to the payment of the purchase money or any other manner as the Council thinks fit:

(b) power to vary any contract of sale and to buy in at any auction:

(c) power to rescind any contract for sale and to resell without being answerable for any loss occasioned thereby:

(d) power to make such streets and to grant such easements of right-of-way or drainage over the same as the circumstances of the case may require and the Council thinks fit:

Provided that the land shall not be sold by private contract unless or until the same has been first offered for sale by public auction.

247 B. (1) A Council shall not exercise the power of sale conferred by this Part unless and until notice demanding payment of all rates owing in respect of the land has been—

(a) in the case of land under the Real Property Act, 1886, served on the person registered as the proprietor thereof by being delivered to him or by being sent in a registered letter posted to him at his address (if any) appearing in the Register Book;

(b) in the case of land not under the Real Property Act, 1886, served on the owner or person appearing by the last memorial relating to the land in the office of Contents of notice.

(1) Every such notice requiring payment shall—

(a) be in writing and be dated and signed by the District Clerk on behalf of the Council;

(b) specify the total amounts owing in respect of rates of which payment is required;

(c) specify the land in respect of which the rates are owing by a sufficient description of the land; and

(d) include a statement that in default of payment of the amounts therein specified, the land will be offered for sale by public auction after the expiration of three months from the date of notice at a time appointed by the Council.

(2) Subject to subsection (2) of section 247B, every such notice may be in the form in the Sixteenth Schedule, or in a form to the like effect.

Fixing of time for sale by auction.

The Council shall appoint a time not less than three months and not more than twelve months from the service of the notice on the proprietor or owner at which the land may be offered for sale by public auction.

Advertisement of sale.

(1) The sale shall be advertised—

(a) once at least in a newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood of the land; and

(b) once
(b) once at least in a newspaper published in the City of Adelaide:

(c) once at least in the Gazette:

(d) by posting a copy of the advertisement in a conspicuous place at the District Office, and keeping the same so posted for not less than twenty-one days:

(e) by such further and other means (if any) as in the circumstances are reasonable and proper.

(2) In the advertisement it shall be competent to include lands within the same District belonging to more than one owner.

247f. Up to the time of the actual sale of any land for non-payment of rates any person having any estate or interest in the land may pay the said rates, and the costs then incurred.

247g. A Council exercising the power of sale conferred by this Division shall have power by transfer (where the land is under the Real Property Act, 1886), and by deed (where the land is not under the Real Property Act, 1886), to transfer or convey an indefeasible estate in fee simple in the land sold free from any mortgage, lease, tenancy, or encumbrance other than as is mentioned in section 247j.

247h. A transfer or conveyance expressed to be in exercise of the power of sale conferred by this Part shall, if accompanied by a statutory declaration by the District Clerk that the provisions of this Part have been complied with, be accepted by the Registrar-General as sufficient evidence that the power of sale has been duly exercised.

247i. (1) Where the land sold is under the Real Property Act, 1886, the transfer shall be executed under the seal of the Council and shall be in the form in the Seventeenth Schedule, or in a form to the like effect.

(2) Where the land sold is not under the Real Property Act, 1886—

(a) the conveyance shall be executed under the seal of the Council:

(b) the Council shall forward the conveyance to the Registrar-General, together with a request in writing to the Registrar-General to issue to and in the name of the purchaser, a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1886, for the said land, free from any mortgage, lease, tenancy, or encumbrance, except as is mentioned in section 247j.

(3) The
(3) The Registrar-General shall, on the receipt of any such conveyance and request and without any further evidence of title or the necessity of publishing any notice of the said request, forthwith issue to the purchaser a certificate of title as aforesaid.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1886, the registration of a memorandum of transfer as aforesaid or issue of a certificate of title as aforesaid shall vest in the purchaser an indefeasible estate in fee simple in the land free from any mortgage, lease, tenancy, or encumbrance (other than as mentioned in section 247J) and where any transfer or conveyance is made in professed exercise of the power of sale conferred by this Act, the title of the purchaser shall not be impeachable on the ground that no case had arisen to authorise the sale or that due notice was not given or that the power was otherwise improperly or irregularly exercised; but any person damnified by an unauthorised or improper or irregular exercise of the power shall have his remedy in damages against the Council in whose name the power was exercised.

247J. Nothing in this Part and no sale, conveyance, or transfer in pursuance thereof shall discharge, cancel, or in anywise diminish or affect any mortgage, lease, tenancy, encumbrance, or charge of any kind in favour of the Crown, the Government of the State, or any instrumentality, branch, or department of the said Government.

247K. If rates are owing for the period aforesaid in respect of more than one piece of land in the name of the same owner within the same District, all the said moneys and all the said lands may be set forth in one notice requiring payment and in one advertisement of sale.

247L. The money received by the Council arising from the sale shall be held by the Council to be applied as follows:

Firstly, in payment of the costs, charges, and expenses properly incurred by the Council as incidental to the sale or any attempted sale or otherwise;

Secondly, in discharge of the rates and costs and other moneys (if any) due to the Council in respect of the land;

Thirdly, in discharge of any mortgages, encumbrances, and charges (other than as mentioned in section 247J), whether registered or not, according to their respective priorities, so far as the same can be ascertained by the Council; and

Fourthly, in payment of the residue of the money within twelve months after the receipt thereof to the registered proprietor or owner of the land or into the Supreme Court under the provisions of section 44 of the Trustee Act, 1893, and thereafter shall be subject to the provisions of the said Act so far as the same are applicable; but any petition, claim, suit, or action for or in respect of any such moneys shall be presented within six years after payment as aforesaid of the residue into the Supreme Court, and after the expiration of the said period all moneys then in the Supreme Court to the credit of the particular trust concerned shall, if there is no such petition, claim, suit, or action pending or any order of the Supreme Court to the contrary, be paid into and form part of General Revenue.

247M. The receipt in writing of the Council, sealed with the seal of the Council, shall be a sufficient discharge for any money arising under the power of sale conferred by this Part, and a person paying the same to the Council shall not be concerned to inquire whether any money remains due to the Council for rates in respect of the land sold.

247N. Where any alteration has been made in the boundaries or constitution of any District wherein the land was situate during the period when the rates or part thereof became due, the Council of the District within which the land is situate at the time the provisions of this Part are put into force shall be entitled to exercise all the powers conferred by this Part.

247O. The powers conferred by this Part shall not affect any other remedy of a Council for the recovery of rates.

10. Division IV. of Part XVII. of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after section 321 the following section:

321A. The Council may construct, erect, or maintain on any public street or road or (with the consent of the owner thereof) on any land adjoining any such street or road all or any of the following things, namely:

(a) guard fences:
(b) walls, posts, rails:
(c) direction signs:
(d) traffic signs.

321B. For the purpose of the construction or maintenance of any public street or road, the Council may dig and take from any public street or road vested in the Council any clay, stone, gravel, or sand, but in every such case the Council shall fence or otherwise properly enclose any excavation, pit, or hole from which any such clay, stone, gravel, or sand is taken, or shall take any other steps reasonably necessary to secure that the existence of the excavation, pit, or hole shall not endanger persons using the street or road.
11. Section 324 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the word "district" in the first line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "any streets or".

12. The principal Act is amended by inserting therein after section 328 the following section:

328A. In any action in any Court which is brought by a Council for the recovery by the Council of any amounts for any work done before the passing of the District Councils Act Amendment Act, 1931, under section 326, section 327, or section 328 of this Act or under section 285, section 286, or section 287 of the District Councils Act, 1914, and which comes on for trial after the passing of the District Councils Act Amendment Act, 1931, it shall not be a defence that tenders were not called by the Council prior to the execution by the Council of the said work, notwithstanding that any by-law of the Council in force at the time of the execution of the work required tenders to be called for any work exceeding in cost the sum of Ten Pounds.

13. Section 387 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out the words "in a newspaper circulating in the District and" in the second line thereof; and

(b) by adding at the end thereof the words "and may, if the Council thinks fit, advertise the said yearly abstract in a newspaper circulating in the District".

14. Subsection (1) of section 439 of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after paragraph xxxvi. the following paragraph:

xxxvia. To regulate, control, or prohibit the keeping of bees in any part or parts of the District where the keeping of bees is or may be a nuisance or danger to persons within the District:

15. Section 450 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out the words "all by-laws" in the third line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "any by-law"; and

(b) by adding at the end thereof the following proviso:—

"Provided that the Council may by resolution (which may be revoked or varied by any subsequent resolution) provide that the amount payable for any printed copy as aforesaid shall be such sum as is fixed by the resolution in which case the said amount shall be payable accordingly".

16. Part XXIII. of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after section 478 the following section:

478A. Any person who wilfully or maliciously damages or injures, or causes any damage or injury, to any street, road, footpath footpath, bridge, culvert, guard fence, railing, post, tree, tree-guard, shrub, traffic sign, or direction sign, which is the property of or is vested in or is under the care, control, or management of a Council, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, and shall, in addition, be liable to pay to the Council the cost of repairing such damage or injury. Payment of any such cost to the Council may be ordered by a Court imposing any such penalty as aforesaid or may be recovered by the Council by action in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

17. The principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following Schedules:
