No. 2.

An Act to enable the Governor to Lease, for mineral purposes, Lands the property of the Government, not being Waste Lands of the Crown.

[Assented to, 30th August, 1864.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable the Governor to lease, for mineral purposes, Lands the property of the Government, not being waste lands of the Crown—Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. The provisions of the “Mineral Leases Act of 1862,” with the exception of clause 7 of that Act, shall apply and extend to all lands in the said Province not being waste lands of the Crown, which may heretofore have been, or may hereafter be, conveyed to or vested in Her Majesty, Her heirs, or successors, or any Governor of the said Province, or other person, for the use of Her Majesty, Her heirs, or successors: Provided that the Governor may, in his discretion, decline to grant a lease of any such lands; and provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to any lands which now are, or shall hereafter be, set apart for the public uses of the said Province.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

D. DALY, Governor.
