No. 2231.

An Act to change the names of certain towns, subdivisions and re-subdivisions, and for purposes incidental thereto.

[Assented to, 12th December, 1935.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Nomenclature Act, 1935". Short title.

2. Every town, subdivision, or re-subdivision which immediately before the passing of this Act was known by any of the existing names mentioned in this section shall, as from the passing of this Act, for all purposes be known by the new name set out in this section opposite to the existing name.

3. (1) For the purpose of giving effect to the change of names provided for in this Act—

(a) the Surveyor-General shall make such alterations as he deems necessary in the public maps and plans in the Department of Lands:
(b) the Registrar-General of Deeds shall make such alterations as he deems necessary in any document whatever in the General Registry Office or the Lands Titles Registration Office, and in any duplicate of any such document, which duplicate is in the possession or under the control of any other person.

(2) The Registrar-General of Deeds need not require the production of any document for the purpose of making any alteration which by this section is required to be made therein, but may make such alteration when the document is voluntarily produced to him for any purpose.

(3) The Governor may by proclamation order the production to the Registrar-General of Deeds, within such time as is specified in the proclamation, of documents of any class specified in the proclamation, being documents in which the Registrar-General of Deeds is by this section required to make alterations.

(4) If any such document is not so produced within the time so specified the Registrar-General may summon the person having the possession, custody, or control of that document to produce it for the purpose of enabling the alteration to be made therein, and that person shall thereupon produce the document without any production or other fee being paid or payable to him therefor.

(5) Any summons issued by the Registrar-General under this section may be in the form in the Twenty-second Schedule to The Real Property Act, 1886, and the provisions of section 227 of that Act shall apply in the case of any refusal or neglect to obey or comply with the requirements of any such summons.

4. (1) After the passing of this Act no person shall lodge in any public office for registration, filing, enrolment, or deposit any document describing any town, subdivision, or resubdivision, by any existing name, changed pursuant to this Act.

(2) The Registrar-General of Deeds and any other person employed in any public office may refuse to receive into his office, or to register, file, enrol, or deposit any document containing any existing name inserted therein in contravention of this section.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

W. DUGAN, Governor.
