No. 2352.

An Act to provide for the application of the Commonwealth Air Navigation Regulations to and in relation to air navigation within the State of South Australia.

[Assented to 3rd November, 1937.]

WHEREAS at a conference of representatives of the Governments of the Commonwealth and of the States held in April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, it was resolved that there should be uniform rules throughout the Commonwealth applying to air navigation and aircraft, the licensing and competence of pilots, air traffic rules, and the regulation of aerodromes, and it was agreed that legislation should be introduced in the Parliament of each State to make provision for the application of the Commonwealth Air Navigation Regulations, as in force from time to time, to air navigation and aircraft within the jurisdiction of the State: BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Governor of the State of South Australia with the advice and consent of the Parliament thereof as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the "Air Navigation Act, 1937". Short title.

2. This Act shall commence upon a date to be fixed by proclamation. Commencement.

4. In this Act—

"the Commonwealth Act" means the Air Navigation Act 1920-1936 of the Commonwealth of Australia and, if that Act is amended, includes that Act as amended from time to time.

"the regulations" means the Air Navigation Regulations made, and as in force from time to time, under the Commonwealth Act:

"the territories" means territories under the authority of the Commonwealth and includes territories governed by the Commonwealth under a mandate.

5. The regulations from time to time in force applicable to and in relation to air navigation within the territories (except so far as those regulations are by virtue of the Commonwealth Act and the regulations applicable to and in relation to air navigation within South Australia) apply mutatis mutandis, to and in relation to air navigation within South Australia as if those regulations as so applied were incorporated in this Act, and for the purposes of this Act those regulations shall be read and construed and take effect accordingly.

6. Where, by or under the regulations, any power or function is vested in or exercisable by any person or authority for the purpose of the regulations or any part thereof, the like power or function under the regulations in their application by virtue of this Act shall be vested in or exercisable by that person or authority for the purposes of the regulations in such application.

7. Any certificate, licence or registration granted, issued, recognised or effected—

(a) by or under the regulations in their application under the Commonwealth Act; or

(b) by or under the regulations in their application by virtue of the law of any other State of the Commonwealth, and any cancellation or suspension of any such certificate, licence or registration, shall in South Australia have the same force and effect as if it had been granted, issued, recognised or effected in pursuance of the regulations in their application by virtue of this Act.

8. All fees payable under the regulations in their application by virtue of this Act shall be paid to the Commonwealth to meet the cost of the administration of the regulations in such application.

9. Proceedings for any offence against the regulations in their application by virtue of this Act shall be disposed of summarily.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

G. J. R. MURRAY, Lieutenant-Governor.
