Adelaide for the office of mayor, alderman, or councillor unless, before the hour of nomination, the person nominated or someone on his behalf deposits with the clerk the sum of three pounds in money or in Australian notes or in a banker’s cheque:
Local Government Act Amendment Act, 1938.

(d) by inserting after the word "any" in the penultimate line of paragraph I. of subsection (2) thereof the word "financial";

(e) by inserting therein after subsection (2) thereof the following subsection:—

(2a) If two or more persons are enrolled on the voters' roll for the area or any ward thereof as occupiers of the same ratable property, the number of such persons who may vote at any election shall be as prescribed by subsection (2) with respect to owners of ratable property. The provisions of subsection (2) shall be deemed to apply to such occupiers and for that purpose subsection (2) shall be read as if the word "occupiers" were substituted for the word "owners" wherever occurring in subsection (2).

(f) by inserting after the figure "(2)" in the first line of subsection (3) thereof the passage "or (2a)";

(g) by striking out the word "tenant" in the third and sixth lines of subsection (3) thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof in each case the words "owner or, as the case may be, occupier" and by striking out the word "tenants" in the seventh line of subsection (3) thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "owners" and by inserting after the word "three" in the eighth line of subsection (3) thereof the words "and the total number of such occupiers entitled to vote shall not exceed three";

(h) by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:—

(4) If two or more persons are enrolled on the voters' roll for the area or any ward thereof both as owners and as occupiers of the same ratable property and no nomination is made as provided by subsection (2), then for the purpose of ascertaining which of those persons shall be entitled to vote as occupiers, regard shall not be had to those of such persons who by virtue of this section are entitled to vote as owners.

17. Section 117 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end of subsection (2) thereof the words "This subsection shall not apply to any area which is not subject to the provisions of Division I. of Part VI."
18. Section 118 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection (the preceding part of the said section being read as subsection (1) thereof):

(2) This section shall not apply to any area which is not subject to the provisions of Division I. of Part VI.

19. Section 126 of the principal Act is amended by adding thereto after paragraph v. thereof the following paragraph:

VI. The returning officer, the deputy returning officer, the poll clerks and the scrutineers shall be the only persons who shall be permitted to be present at the place where the ballot-boxes are opened or the voting papers are examined or counted.

20. Section 127 of the principal Act is amended by adding thereto after paragraph ii. thereof the following paragraph:

III. The returning officer, the deputy returning officer, the poll clerks, and the scrutineers shall be the only persons who shall be permitted to be present at the place where the ballot-boxes are opened or the voting papers are examined or counted.

21. Section 128 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the words “one month” in the first line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “three months”.

22. Section 137 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the words “immediately upon” in the second line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “within fourteen days after”.

23. Part VII. of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following section:

142a. (1) The deposit made by or on behalf of a candidate at any election within the Municipality of the City of Adelaide for the office of mayor, alderman, or councillor, shall be retained pending the election and after the election shall be returned to the candidate or to any person authorized by him in writing to receive it if the candidate is elected or obtains the prescribed number of votes or more; otherwise the deposit shall be forfeited to the council.

(2) A candidate in any election shall be deemed to have obtained the prescribed number of votes if the number of votes polled in his favour is one-fifth of the number of votes polled for any other candidate who was elected at that election.
Local Government Act Amendment Act, 1938.

(3) If a candidate nominated for any election dies before or on the day fixed for taking votes for that election, the deposit made by or on behalf of the candidate shall be returned to his personal representatives.

24. Section 144 of the principal Act is amended—
(a) by striking out the word "other" in the second line thereof; and
(b) by inserting after the word "places" in the second line the words "within the area".

25. Section 147 of the principal Act is amended—
(a) by striking out the words "or other member presiding at a meeting of a municipal council" in paragraph v. thereof;
(b) by adding at the end of paragraph v. thereof the words "and any other member presiding at a meeting of a municipal council shall have a deliberative vote, and, in case of equality of votes, a casting vote also".

26. (1) The principal Act is amended by inserting therein after Part IX. the following Part:—

PART IXa.—THE CLERKS’ APPEAL BOARD.
163a. In this Part "board" means The Clerks’ Appeal Board.

163b. (1) There shall be a board to be called "The Clerks’ Appeal Board".

(2) The board shall consist of—
(a) the president and the secretary for the time being of the Local Government Association:
(b) the president and the secretary for the time being of the Local Government Officers’ Association of South Australia, Incorporated:
(c) the vice-president of the Municipal Association.

(3) If any appeal is made to the board by the clerk of any council and—
(a) the person appealing is a member of the board; or
(b) any member of the board is also a mayor, alderman or councillor of that council, then in either case, the member shall not, for the purposes of that appeal, act as a member of the board.
Local Government Act Amendment Act, 1938.

In any such case, the association which is represented by such member shall, at least seven days before the day appointed for the hearing of the appeal, by notice in writing given to the Minister nominate a member of that association to act as a member of the board for the purposes of the appeal and, failing nomination as aforesaid, the Minister shall appoint a person to act as a member of the board for the purposes of the appeal. Every person so nominated or appointed shall, for the purposes of the appeal, be deemed to be a member of the board.

4. If any of the said associations is dissolved, the Minister may by notice published in the Gazette declare—

(a) that for the purposes of this Part, some other association specified by the Minister which has similar objects to the dissolved association, shall be deemed to be substituted for the dissolved association; and

(b) that such officer or officers of the substituted association as are specified by the Minister shall be a member or members of the board in the place of the officer or officers of the dissolved association who are members of the board.

The provisions of this Part shall be construed so as to give effect to any such notice.

163c. The board shall hear and determine appeals as by this Part provided.

163d. Any three members of the board shall constitute a quorum of the board and may exercise any of the powers of the board.

163e. (1) The vice-president of the Municipal Association shall be the chairman of the board.

(2) In the absence of the chairman from any meeting or part thereof the members of the board then present shall elect a member to preside at the meeting.

(3) The person presiding at any meeting shall have both a deliberative and a casting vote.

163f. If any clerk is—

(a) dismissed; or

(b) suspended; or

(c) reduced in status,

by the council by which he is employed, he may within thirty days of the giving of the decision of the council, by notice in writing given to any member of the board, appeal to the board against the decision of the council.

163g. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the board shall hear and determine any appeal in such manner as appears to the board to be just.

(2) Every such determination shall be binding on the council.

(3) The board may decline to hear or determine any appeal which appears from the notice of appeal to be merely trivial, frivolous, or vexatious.

163h. (1) On any appeal the board may make any order it deems just, requiring either party to pay any amount to the other party by way of costs of the appeal, but no such order shall be made for any amount exceeding one-half of the costs actually incurred by the party to whom costs are awarded.

(2) Any costs ordered to be paid as aforesaid may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the party to whom it is payable.

163i. (1) A member of the board shall be paid by the association of which he is an officer and by virtue of which official position he is a member of the board, such fees and expenses as are fixed by that association.

(2) The expenses of the board shall be borne by the associations mentioned in section 163b in equal proportions.

163j. The Governor may make regulations for—

(a) the form of appeal:

(b) the procedure of the board:

(c) generally carrying out the purposes and provisions of and to prescribe the procedure under this Part.

(2) Section 3 of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after the line “Part IX.—Officers of the Council” the following line:

PART IXa.—THE CLERKS’ APPEAL BOARD.

27. Division I. of Part X. of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after section 164 the following sections:

164a. (1) Every assessment by the council shall be made by a valuator or valuators appointed by the council.
(2) Every valuator, before entering upon his duties, shall make and subscribe a declaration in the form No. 1 in the twenty-second schedule. Every such declaration shall be filed in the office.

(3) An assessment shall be certified by the valuator in the form No. 2 in the twenty-second schedule.

164b. The valuator or valuers appointed to make an assessment in respect of any financial year may be appointed and the assessment may be made before the commencement of that financial year, but no assessment in respect of any financial year shall be approved or adopted by the council except after the commencement of that financial year.

28. Section 169 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the words "or parts of land and buildings or land situated in any district" in the first and second lines of subsection (2) thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "situated in any district or in any municipality other than a metropolitan municipality".

29. Division I. of Part X. of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after section 172 the following section:-

172a. In any case where the council is satisfied that—

(a) the owner of any ratable property is a married woman; and

(b) the ratable property is used only for the purposes of a dwelling-house and its appurtenances which is inhabited by the married woman, and her husband, and their family, household, and dependents, and no others, the husband shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to be the occupier of the ratable property and may be included in the assessment book as the occupier of the ratable property.

30. (1) Section 173 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by striking out the words "for a term not less than seven years" in paragraph 1. of subsection (2) thereof, and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "from year to year"; and

(b) by striking out the words "for a term of seven years" in paragraph 1. of subsection (3) thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "from year to year".
(2) The amendments made by this section shall take effect from the first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine.

31. Section 173 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the words "or at five per centum of the capital value of the fee simple" in paragraph 1. of subsection (3) thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "but so that no such building and land or land shall be assessed at an annual value which is less than five per centum of the value of the fee simple thereof".

32. Section 188 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end of subsection (1) thereof the words "The council shall pay to the Commissioner of Taxes eightpence per folio of seventy-two words for every such certificate".

33. The principal Act is amended by inserting therein after section 196 thereof the following section:—

196a. If one hundred or more ratepayers request the council in writing to take a poll as provided by section 197, the council shall hold a poll as provided by that section.

34. Section 197 of the principal Act is amended by striking out all the words in subsection (1) thereof after the word "taken" in the third line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "and the said owners voting at the poll have voted affirming a proposition in favour of Division III. of this Part ceasing to operate as regards the area".

35. Section 203 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the passage "(whether under this Act or any repealed Act)" in the second line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the passage "(including any assessment adopted by the council)".

36. (1) Section 204 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting after the word "council" in the second line thereof the words "and except where the appellant appeals pursuant to subdivision II. of section 203 in respect of ratable property of which he is neither the owner nor the occupier"; and

(b) by inserting therein after subsection (2) thereof the following subsection:—

(2a) Where the appellant appeals pursuant to subdivision II. of section 203 against the assessment or any alteration thereof or addition thereto in respect of any ratable property of which the appellant is neither the owner nor the occupier, the appeal shall be made direct to the local court of full jurisdiction nearest to the office.

(2) Section 205 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting after the word "court" in the third line thereof the words "or to the local court pursuant to subsection (2a) of section 204"; and

(b) by inserting after the word "court" in the second line of paragraph VIII. thereof the words "and appeals to the local court pursuant to subsection (2a) of section 204".

37. Subsection (2) of section 227 of the principal Act is repealed, and the following subsections are enacted in lieu thereof:

(2) The requisite number of ratepayers may demand a poll by thereupon giving notice in writing to the chairman of the meeting or to the clerk, or by giving notice in writing to the clerk at any time during the day upon which the meeting was held or during the day subsequent thereto.

(2a) The requisite number of ratepayers for the purpose of subsection (2) shall, in the case of a municipality, be one hundred ratepayers or one-twentieth of the total number of ratepayers on the voters' roll, whichever is the less, and in the case of a district, be twenty-one ratepayers.

(2b) The decision of the chairman of the meeting on the question whether or not any such demand has been duly made shall be final.

38. (1) Division I. of Part XII. of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after the heading "(c) Provisions Applicable to Districts only" the following section:

233a. (1) Any district council may for any financial year fix a minimum amount (but not exceeding two shillings and sixpence) which shall be payable by way of rates on ratable properties within the district; and if the total of the general rates and any other rates payable in respect of any one ratable property in any financial year is less than the minimum amount fixed as aforesaid for that year, the said minimum amount shall nevertheless be payable in respect of the said ratable property.

(2) If any ratable property adjoins any other ratable property which is owned by the same owner and occupied by the same occupier as the owner and occupier of the first mentioned property, all such adjoining ratable properties shall be deemed to be one ratable property for the purpose of the payment of any minimum rate fixed as aforesaid.

(2) Section 228 of the principal Act is amended—
(a) by striking out the word “metropolitan” in the first line thereof; and
(b) by striking out subsection (3) thereof.

39. Section 251 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:—

(3) A person who becomes the owner of any ratable property by reason of being a mortgagee in possession shall not be liable, in respect of that ratable property, to the payment of any rates declared in respect of any financial year previous to the financial year in which he becomes the owner as aforesaid. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to limit the powers of the council under Part XIV.

40. Section 255 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection (the preceding portion of the said section being read as subsection (1) thereof):—

(2) A person who becomes the owner of any ratable property by reason of being a mortgagee in possession shall not be liable, in respect of that ratable property, to the payment of any rates declared in respect of any financial year previous to the financial year in which he becomes the owner as aforesaid. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to limit the powers of the council under Part XIV.

41. Section 286 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end of subsection (1) thereof the following paragraph:—

Notwithstanding the provisions of The Savings Bank of South Australia Act, 1929-1935, a council may deposit in the Savings Bank of South Australia any of its moneys without restriction as to amount.

42. (1) Subsection (1) of section 287 of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after paragraph (h) thereof the following paragraph:—

(h1) subscribing to any fund for the relief of persons who served as sailors or soldiers in the Great War of 1914-1918 or of their dependents:

(2) The amendment made by this section shall be deemed to have been made and councils shall be deemed to have had the powers conferred by the said amendment as from the first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven.
Amendment of principal Act, s. 287—
Expenditure by council.
Amendment of principal Act, s. 287—
Expenditure of revenue.

43. Section 287 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the proviso to paragraph (e) of subsection (1) thereof.

44. (1) Section 287 of the principal Act is amended by inserting in subsection (1) thereof after paragraph (g) the following paragraph:

(g1) purchasing and erecting, or contributing to the purchase and erection, of monuments and statuary in the area:

(2) Paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 288 of the principal Act is repealed.

45. Section 291 of the principal Act is repealed.

46. Section 296 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:

(4) In addition to the matters provided for by subsection (3), the said statement shall be drawn up in such form as to show the separate amounts subscribed by the council pursuant to paragraph (f) or paragraph (k1) of subsection (1) of section 287.

47. Section 306 of the principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection (the preceding portion of the said section being read as subsection (1) thereof):

(2) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, possession by any person of any public street or road (whether before or after the passing of the Local Government Act Amendment Act, 1938) shall not give any rights of ownership to that person.

48. Division IV. of Part XVII. of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after section 313 the following section:

313a. If all the owners of property abutting upon any street or road request the council in writing to remove the street or road from the register of public streets, the council may by resolution direct that the street or road be removed from the said register. The town clerk shall thereupon alter the register accordingly.

49. Section 319 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after the word “from” in the fourth line of subsection (3) thereof the words “the expiration of three months after”.

50. Section 328 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after the word “from” in the third line of subsection (3) thereof the words “the expiration of three months after”.

51. Section 328 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the word “stone” in the third line of subsection (6) thereof.
52. Section 330 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after the word “from” in the fifth line of subsection (3) thereof the words “the expiration of three months after”.

53. Division VIII. of Part XVII. is amended by inserting therein after section 337 the following section:

337a. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Division, the council may make, remove, or repair any crossing place either wholly or partly at the cost of the council.

54. Section 342 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after the word “from” in the fourth line of subsection (10) thereof the words “the expiration of three months after”.

55. Section 342 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after subsection (11) thereof the following subsection:

(11a) The council may carry out the work of repairing any private street or road to the extent in this subsection mentioned without preparing plans and specifications, estimates and a provisional apportionment and without serving notice thereof upon owners of property, and may apportion the cost thereof and recover the same as provided in this section.

The provisions of this subsection shall apply only where the cost to be apportioned and recovered does not exceed the following amounts:

1. In private streets and roads wherein the total length of the frontages of the abutting property does not exceed two hundred feet—three pounds:

2. In private streets and roads wherein the total lengths of the frontages of the abutting property exceeds two hundred feet—five pounds:

3. In private streets and roads which are situated within the portion of the City of Adelaide bounded by North Terrace, Pulteney Street, Flinders Street and Franklin Street, and Morphett Street wherein the length of the frontages of the abutting properties exceeds two hundred feet—eight pounds.

56. Section 343 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the words “twenty-one days” in the fourth line of subsection (5) thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “three months”.

57. Division X. of Part XVII. of the principal Act is amended by inserting therein after section 344 the following section:

344a. (1) If a request in writing is presented to the council signed by not less than three-fourths of the owners of ratable property abutting on a private street or road, or any part thereof, requesting the council to form, level, pave, kerb, drain, or repair the private street or road, or part thereof, the council may carry out the work and recover from all the persons who, at the time of the completion of the work, are owners of ratable property abutting on the private street or road or part thereof the whole of the expenses incurred by the council in carrying out the work (including the cost, if any, of supervision incurred by the council but not exceeding five per centum of the total expenses) ratably according to the frontages of the ratable property abutting on the private street or road or part thereof.

(2) In any case where property abutting on any such private street or road, or part thereof, is not ratable property, the proportion of the said expenses payable in respect of the said property shall be paid by the council out of moneys of the council.

(3) The respective proportions of the expenses incurred by the council as aforesaid together with interest thereof at the rate of six pounds per centum per annum calculated from three months after the date of the completion of the work may be recovered by the council from the owners of the said ratable property at the time of the completion of the work and until fully paid or recovered shall from the said date of completion be a charge upon the land in respect whereof the same is due and payable under this section.

(4) A document purporting to be a certificate under the hand of the mayor or chairman and the clerk shall be prima facie evidence in all courts—

(a) that the work has been carried out:

(b) of the expenses incurred by the council in carrying out such work:

(c) of the proportion thereof payable by each owner:

(d) of the date of the completion of the work:

(e) that the land whereon the work was carried out was a private street or road, or part thereof, as the case may be.

(5) In this section "private street or road" includes court, alley, lane, and thoroughfare but does not include any street, road, court, alley, lane, or thoroughfare which is more than twenty feet in width.

(6) This section shall not apply within the City of Adelaide.
58. Section 348 of the principal Act is amended by striking out subsection (4) thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:

(4) Where any public street or road is raised or lowered by the council above or below the level of land abutting on the street or road, the council shall construct sufficient retaining walls and shall provide sufficient means of ingress and egress between the street or road and the abutting land.

59. Section 352 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the words “liable to contribute” in the penultimate line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “who contributes”.

60. Section 358 of the principal Act is amended:

(a) by striking out the word “kiosks” in the fourth line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “safety zones, or stalls for the sale of fruit, newspapers, magazines and other periodicals”; and

(b) by inserting after the word “island” in the seventh line thereof the words “or safety zone”.

61. Section 361 of the principal Act is amended by inserting after the word “growing” in the fourth line thereof the words “or was growing”.
