

ANNO VICESIMO SEPTIMO ET VICESIMO OCTAVO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1864.

No. 6.

An Act to suspend the levying and collecting of Duties of Customs in the Northern Territory.

[Assented to, 3rd November, 1864.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that no Duties of Customs should at present be imposed or levied within the Territory lately annexed to the Province of South Australia—Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows: Preamble.

1. Until a time to be fixed by Proclamation, as hereinafter mentioned, no duties of Customs shall be imposed, levied, or collected within that portion of the said Province lately annexed by Letters Patent, bearing date the sixth day of July, in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and signed by warrant under the Queen's Sign Manual. Until Proclamation, no duties of Customs to be levied in the Northern Territory.

2. The Governor may at any time, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the South Australian Government Gazette, declare and fix a time when duties of Customs shall be levied in that portion of the said Province so annexed as aforesaid; and from and after the date declared and fixed by the said Proclamation, duties of Customs shall be imposed, levied, and collected therein, as if this Act had not been passed. Governor by Proclamation may fix time when duties to be imposed.

3. The Collector of Customs and all Officers of Customs in the said Indemnity to Collector of Customs.

Northern Territory Customs Duties Act.—1864.

said Province are hereby indemnified for not having collected the duties of Customs within that portion of the said Province so annexed as aforesaid, which may have been due and payable previous to this Act coming into operation.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

D. DALY, Governor.
