ANNO TRICESIMO

VICTORIAE REGINÆ.

A.D. 1866-7.

No. 23.

An Act to amend “The Port Adelaide Waterworks Act, 1863.”

[Assented to, 11th January, 1867.]

WHEREAS by the forty-fourth section of “The Port Adelaide Waterworks Act, 1863,” it is enacted that the Commissioner shall at least three months before he shall commence to supply the said town with water, and every year thereafter, make and bring into force an assessment of all lands within the Town of Port Adelaide, as in the said section is more particularly mentioned: And whereas it is not desirable that the said Commissioner should be prevented from commencing to supply the said town with water during the period which would be necessary according to the provisions of such section —Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as “The Port Adelaide Waterworks Amendment Act, 1866.”

2. This Act and the said “The Port Adelaide Waterworks Act, 1863,” shall be read together as forming one Act.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in the said forty-fourth section of the said “The Port Adelaide Waterworks Act, 1863,” the Commissioner may forthwith commence to supply the said Town of Port Adelaide with water, although the said Commissioner shall not three calendar months before so commencing to supply the said town as aforesaid have made and brought into force an assessment, as in the said section is more particularly mentioned.

4. If
Port Adelaide Waterworks Amendment Act.—1866-7.

4. If the said Commissioner shall not at the time of the passing of this Act have made and brought into force an assessment as mentioned in the said forty-fourth section, he shall forthwith after the passing hereof make and bring into force such an assessment; and such assessment being so made shall, except as hereinafter mentioned, be deemed and taken for all purposes to have been made and brought into force three calendar months before the time when the said Commissioner shall commence to supply the said Town of Port Adelaide with water as aforesaid: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to take away or prejudice any right of appeal against such assessment which any person may or, but for this Act, might have had, and for the purposes of any such appeal only such assessment shall be deemed to have come into force on the date of the publication of the notice of the same having been made, being published as provided by the said "The Port Adelaide Waterworks Act, 1863."

In the name and on behalf of the Queen, I hereby assent to this Act.

D. DALY, Governor.
