Private Act.

An Act to amend "The Wallaroo Railway Act."

[Assented to, 21st October, 1862.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend the Wallaroo Railway Act, by conferring on Apollos Harrison Gouge, of Adelaide, in the Province of South Australia, contractor, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, power to make branches from any part of the present main line of railway, as described in clause 4 of the said Act to the several places specified or referred to in the said clause—Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor-in-Chief of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. The fourth clause of the Wallaroo Railway Act shall be read and shall take effect as if the words "to continue such line of railway or to make a branch or branches therefrom either from Kadina or from any other point or points in the said main line of railway" had been substituted for the words "to continue such line of railway from Kadina" prior to the passing of the said Act.

2. This Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.

3. This Act may be cited as "The Wallaroo Railway Amendment Act."

4. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to affect or apply

apply to any right, title, or interest of Her Majesty, Her heirs, or successors, or of any body or bodies politic or corporate, or of any person or persons other than and except such bodies politic or corporate and persons as are mentioned in this Act, and those claiming by, from, or under them respectively.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

D. DALY, Governor.
