21. A licence may be granted by the Chief Inspector of Explosives to any person for the carriage of explosives by land, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Acts incorporated therewith.

22. (1) The
22. (1) The Governor may appoint a Chief Inspector of Explosives and such other Inspectors of Explosives as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the principal Act and the Acts incorporated therewith.

(2) Any person heretofore appointed Chief Inspector or an Inspector of Explosives shall be deemed to have been appointed under this Act.

23. (1) Any Inspector of Explosives may—

(a) at any time enter, inspect, and examine any magazine or premises licensed by the Chief Inspector of Explosives or any place where he believes any explosives may be found, except Government magazines or magazines afloat:

(b) make any general or particular inquiries as to the observance of, or which are necessary for the purposes of, sections 352, 353, 354, 355, and 364 of the principal Act or any of them, or of this Act:

(c) take without payment such samples of any substance which he believes to be an explosive as are necessary for the examination and testing thereof whether such substance is in a Government magazine or not:

(d) seize, detain, and remove any explosive and any package or carriage in which the same is contained (except where such explosive is under the control of the Board) if he has reasonable cause to believe that there has been a contravention of this Act in respect of such explosive, and

(e) where he believes it necessary in the public interest, with the consent of the Minister of Industry destroy or otherwise dispose of any explosive, except where such explosive is under the control of the Board: Provided that in cases of imminent danger he may so act without such consent.

(2) The expense of destruction or disposal of any explosive under paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section shall be borne by the owner of such explosive.

24. Every person on or about the place inspected who—

(a) does not, upon being requested so to do by an Inspector of Explosives, facilitate the entry, inspection, and examination authorised by this Act by the Inspector; or

(b) does not, upon being so requested, facilitate the taking of samples, or the seizure, detention, or removal of any explosive, packages, or carriage, or the destruction or disposal of any explosive authorised by this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Pounds.

25. Any
25. Any person who—

(a) obstructs or hinders any Inspector of Explosives; or

(b) in any way interferes with or prevents the exercise of any of the powers conferred by this Act upon Inspectors of Explosives; or

(c) disobeys any lawful order or direction of an Inspector of Explosives; or

(d) refuses or neglects to truly answer any inquiry made by an Inspector of Explosives under the authority of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Pounds.

26. No Inspector of Explosives shall be liable, except in respect of any wilful neglect or default, to any legal proceedings for anything done in pursuance of this Act.

27. (1) If in the opinion of the Chief Inspector of Explosives any explosive under the control of the Board—

(a) has been damaged or from its condition is, or is likely to become, dangerous to life or property during storage, transport or use, or

(b) has not been defined and classified as provided in section 364 of the principal Act or does not conform in composition, quality, and character to the definition made in accordance with such section, the said Chief Inspector shall in writing notify the Minister of Industry of such opinion.

(2) Upon receipt of such notification the Minister of Industry shall transmit the same to the Board.

(3) The Board may on receipt of such notification destroy such explosive or may order the same to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

(4) The expense of such destruction or disposal shall be borne by the owner of such explosive.

28. For the purposes of sections 23 and 27 of this Act an explosive shall be deemed to be under the control of the Board—

(a) if it is in a Government magazine;

(b) if it is in a magazine afloat;

(c) if it is on board ship in any port in South Australia;

(d) if it is in course of being landed from any such ship;

(e) if it is in course of being shipped in any such port;

(f) if it is on board any boat licensed by the Board under section 342 of the principal Act; or

(g) if
29. (1) No person shall remove any explosive from any Government magazine unless the prescribed fees for inspecting or testing such explosive have first been paid to the Chief Inspector of Explosives.

(2) Explosives shall not be delivered from a Government magazine until the Chief Inspector of Explosives has certified in writing to the said Board’s Superintendent of Explosives that all fees due to the Chief Inspector of Explosives with respect to the explosives which it is desired to remove have been paid, and that such explosives are in a satisfactory condition.

(3) Any person offending against subsection (1) of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Pounds.

30. Notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Act or any Act incorporated therewith or in the Harbors Act, 1913, the Governor may make regulations for all or any of the following purposes:

1. The licensing by the Chief Inspector of Explosives of premises and of magazines ashore other than Government magazines, and prescribing the terms and conditions on which licences will be granted;

2. The conveyance to, receipt at, delivery from, or storage in, magazines ashore, other than Government magazines, of any explosives;

3. The inspection, examination and testing from time to time of explosives in premises or in magazines ashore other than Government magazines by Inspectors of Explosives, and prescribing the fees therefor;

4. Regulating the carriage of explosives by land within South Australia, except the carriage to or from Government magazines from or to any ship;

5. Prohibiting the manufacture of explosives without a licence from the Chief Inspector of Explosives;

6. The issuing of licences by the Chief Inspector of Explosives to manufacture explosives and prescribing the terms and conditions on which such licences will be granted;

7. The inspection of explosive factories by Inspectors of Explosives and the regulation of the method of manufacture in such factories;

8. The definition of safety cartridges and safety fuses, and the exemption of such or any other explosives from all or any of the provisions of the principal Act or the Acts incorporated therewith, and the conditions (if any) of such exemption;

9. Prescribing the fees not to be removed from Government magazine without payment of the prescribed fees.
ix. Prescribing the fees to be paid for any licence or certificate issued by the Chief Inspector of Explosives and the method of recovery thereof;

x. Providing penalties for breaches of any such regulations to an amount not exceeding the sum of One Hundred Pounds.

31. Notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Act, when any regulation made by the Governor under this Act is inconsistent with any by-law or regulation made by the Board, the former shall prevail, and the latter shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, be void.

Amendments and New Provisions relating to Safety of Foreign Ships in South Australian Ports.

32. The provisions of sections 3 to 10 inclusive of the Marine Board and Navigation Act Amendment Act, 1894 (except subsections (3) and (4) of section 6), shall apply to all foreign ships while they are within any port in South Australia as they now apply to British ships, without prejudice to any direction by the Governor given under section 12 of the said Act in the case of ships of any foreign country in which the regulations in force relating to overloading and improper loading are equally effective with the provisions of the said Act and of the principal Act.

33. Section 184 of the principal Act—

(a) is amended by inserting the words "by reason of the defective condition of her hull, equipments, or machinery, or" before the words "by reason of overloading or improper loading;" and

(b) as so amended shall apply with respect to any foreign ship being at any port in South Australia, whether such ship takes on board any cargo at that port or not.

34. (1) Section 230 of the principal Act shall apply to a foreign ship which loads a grain cargo in South Australia so long as the ship is within a port in South Australia.

(2) If a foreign ship laden with grain cargo arrives at any port in South Australia having the grain cargo so loaded that the master of the ship, if the ship were a British ship, would be liable to a penalty under the provisions of section 230 of the principal Act, the master of that foreign ship shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Three Hundred Pounds.

Reserved for the signification of His Majesty the King's pleasure thereon.

H. L. GALWAY, Governor.

Adelaide: By authority, R. E. E. ROGERS, Government Printer, North Terrace.
