ANNO QUADRAGESIMO TERTIO ET QUADRAGESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1880.

*******************************************************************************

No. 170.

An Act to continue in force “The Northern Territory Justice Act, 1875.”

[Assented to, 11th August, 1880.]

WHEREAS by “The Northern Territory Justice Act, 1875,” Preamble, No. 15, it is Enacted that the said Act shall continue for two years from the passing thereof, and for such further period (if any), not exceeding three years, as may be fixed by the Governor, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette; and whereas, by Proclamation duly made and published by the Governor, the said Act was extended for a further period of three years: And whereas it is expedient to continue the operation of the said Act—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. “The Northern Territory Justice Act, 1875,” shall, after the fourteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, continue in force, anything in section 9 of the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.

By authority, E. SPILLER, Government Printer, North-terrace.
