No. 75.

An Act to amend the “Roads Amendment Act, 1863.”

[Assented to, 21st December, 1877.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend the “Roads Amendment Act, 1863”--Be it Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. Every order for the purpose of closing or opening any road or roads, or both, made after the date of the passing of this Act by any Local Court, in pursuance of the “Roads Amendment Act, 1863,” shall be forwarded by the person obtaining the same to the Commissioner of Crown Lands for confirmation by the Governor; and every such order, unless the same be duly confirmed in manner as is provided in the said Act for the confirmation of like orders made by the “Commissioners,” shall be utterly null and void.

2. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with the “Roads Amendment Act, 1863,” and shall be construed therewith and have effect accordingly.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor
