An Act to amend The Municipal Corporations Amendment Act, 1873, and for other purposes.

[Assented to, 10th October, 1877.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend “The Municipal Corporations Amendment Act, 1873,” and to render valid certain proceedings under “The Municipal Corporations Act, 1861,” in the respects hereinafter provided—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as “The Municipal Corporations Further Amendment Act, 1877.”

2. The ninth section of “The Municipal Corporations Amendment Act, 1873,” shall be read and construed as if the words following, that is to say, “the said Council or the said Local Court, as the case may be,” were inserted between the words “adjournment thereof” and the words “may make” of the said section.

3. All assessments heretofore made by the Corporation of the Town of Burra shall be valid notwithstanding that the provisions of clauses 151 and 152 of “The Municipal Corporations Act, 1861” may not have been complied with.

4. Non-compliance with the twelfth clause of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1861, shall not be deemed to invalidate any election heretofore.
heretofore held for any municipal office for the Town of Burra, and the "Citizens' Roll" for the said Town, now deposited in the Town Clerk's office, shall be valid until the twentieth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, for the purpose of any elections under the said Act.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.
