No. 2.

An Act to make provision for the Raising of Funds for the Construction of a Line of Telegraph from Port Augusta to Port Darwin.

[Assented to, 16th June, 1870.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize the Government to raise the sum of One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Pounds, for purpose of constructing a line of telegraph from Port Augusta to Port Darwin—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the “Port Augusta and Port Darwin Telegraph Act, 1870.”

2. It shall be lawful for the Treasurer, for the time being, of the said Province, from time to time to issue bonds, not exceeding in the whole the sum of One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Pounds, for such amounts as he may deem expedient, and such bonds shall be in the form following, that is to say—

Note.—Interest payable at the Treasury in Adelaide, South Australia [or in London or in any other agreed place to be declared at the time of issue], at such place as may be appointed by notice, to be given in the South Australian Government Gazette [and in the London Gazette.]

Principal payable at the Treasury in Adelaide, or at the option of the holder [in London or other agreed place], if six months' notice of desire to that effect be given to the Treasurer, in South Australia.

3. The said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of Six Pounds per centum per annum, and the interest and principal upon such bonds shall be payable and paid to the holder thereof, at such place and time as may be specified or provided therein: Provided that the principal shall not be payable or paid before the expiration of twenty-five years, and the time appointed for payment thereof shall not extend beyond fifty years from the time of the passing of this Act.

4. The Treasurer shall cause every bond issued under this Act to be sold for the best price, not being below par, that can be obtained for the same.

5. All sums of money raised and received by the Treasurer upon the security of the said bonds shall be carried by him to a separate and distinct account, to be applied for the purpose of carrying out the construction of a line of telegraph from Port Augusta to Port Darwin; and such sums of money shall be paid by the said Treasurer in such amounts and manner as the Governor by any warrant under his hand may, from time to time, authorize and direct.

6. The said Treasurer shall, and he is hereby required, in each and every year from the first raising of any sums of money under the authority hereof, until the whole of the amount so raised, and all interest thereon, shall have been duly paid, to set apart such a sum as shall suffice to pay the amount of bonds redeemable during such year, together with interest upon all bonds which shall then bear interest; and shall apply such sum in payment of such bonds and interest as aforesaid, in manner specified in such bonds.

7. The
7. The Governor may, from time to time, by warrant under his hand authorize the Treasurer to advance and pay for the purposes of this Act any sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum hereby authorized to be raised, and any sums of money so advanced and paid shall be retained by the Treasurer out of any moneys raised by him under the authority hereof.

8. The Treasurer shall in each year cause an account in abstract to be prepared of the whole receipts and of the expenditure of all moneys advanced to him for the purposes of this Act for the year preceding, under the several distinct heads of receipts and expenditure, with a statement of the balance of such account duly audited and certified by the Auditor-General; and a copy of such account shall on or before the thirty-first day of December in each year following be published in the Government Gazette.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor.
