SHIPBUILDING INDUSTRY

Following a press statement today by the Federal Minister of Transport, Mr. Nixon, regarding the building of four A.N.L. ships, the Premier, Mr. Dunstan, has sent the following telex message to the Prime Minister, Mr. Fraser:

"I am awaiting an official communication regarding a press statement made today by your Minister of Transport.

"If the report that two of four A.N.L. ships are to be built in Newcastle is correct, then the South Australian Government seeks equal treatment. Can you please verify the report and advise me immediately of the current situation and your Government's attitude to the other two ships being built in Whyalla".
