MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER.

I welcome this opportunity through the pages of the Public Service Review to wish all South Australian Public Servants and their families a very happy Christmas and a prosperous 1972.

On behalf of myself and all the Cabinet I'd also like to thank all of you very much for your hard work and enthusiasm in the past year.

The new policies we are implementing have imposed heavy burdens on the Public Service. Without the ready co-operation and support that Public Servants have readily given we could not have achieved so much.
