MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN
SUPPORTING AUSTCARE'S 1972 REFUGEE RELIEF APPEAL

I urge all South Australians to give generous support to Austcare's 1972 Refugee Relief Appeal. Every year it seems, from somewhere in the world, we see a repetition of that tragic spectacle - a line of refugees fleeing from disaster towards despair. We've seen it again in Vietnam this week. Before then it was Bangla Desh. The gravity of the Bangla Desh situation has brought great demands on Austcare's resources. And massive help is still urgently needed. The United Nations' Secretary-General has described the situation in Bangla Desh as one which requires aid on a scale unprecedented in the history of the world body.

The Austcare Appeal provides a way in which you can help these millions of men, women and children who otherwise face misery and famine.

You can help in two ways: by giving a straight donation or by buying this record "Top Star Festival".

The world famous singers, musicians and songwriters who've produced it have donated their services. It's been released by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and net profits will be used to help refugees. The cost is $3.98 and about $2.40 of that will go to the refugees. It will be sold through the service outlets of an internationally-known oil company.

So, please, either by buying this record or by making a donation, or both, give all the help you can to Austcare.
