CHRISTMAS-NEW YEAR MESSAGE FROM DON DUNSTAN
PREMIER OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish the Greek community a Happy Christmas.

My Government truly appreciates the contribution Greek people and their children have made to the development of South Australia, and to the whole Australian nation. Greek people have brought to this country their own high spirits, strength and honour, and are helping to make Australia a better place for all people.

May you and your families enjoy this holiday time, and may the New Year be a happy one for you all.

PREMIER.

December, 1972.
